COACHES QUOTES

FLORIDA STATE HEAD COACH BOBBY BOWDEN

"I believe they (Furman) are the scrapiest team we have played this year. This might have been our toughest game so far. Furman took it to us and they didn't give up. I give them all the credit. Their coaches had a better game plan for us than we did for them. If we did not execute like we did, it could have been real problems. Sammie's 95 yarder wrapped the game up. It was a momentum-breaker. We just couldn't get the ball away from them. It seems like they had the ball three quarters of the time. I hope we are a better team than that (meaning tonight). I think the team took Furman lightly but Furman certainly didn't take us lightly."

"If you're not in the national picture, then I would go for fursies (about a bowl game). If you are in the top five, you've got to go and hope to play someone who will if you win, will elevate you in the rankings."

FURMAN HEAD COACH JIMMY SATTERFIELD

"We played to win. Our coaches and players are disappointed with the loss. But you can't give enough credit to our kids. Florida State is ranked fourth in the country and they got all they could handle. Our guys played great. If they had stayed in their base defense instead of stunting, I think we could have gained even more yards rushing on them. We probably gained three times as many yards rushing as Auburn did against them. We ~~XXX~~ came into the game feeling like we had to run the football. Sterling played great. He broke tackles and made some great runs. Considering all the advantages Florida State had, including the crowd, we hung in there tough."
