NOTES & QUOTES+

*** Tamarick Vanover's 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown tied for the 5th longest in FSU history. It was the first since 1986 when Keith Ross and Dexter Carter combined on a 100-yard return against Miami.

*** Ken Alexander's third-quarter interception was the first of his career.

*** Sean Jackson's 88-yard run for a touchdown was the third longest in FSU history and the longest of his career. It was the longest since Sammie Smith's 95-yard run against Furman in 1987.

*** Last year, no player had more than eight catches in a game. Tonight, Tamarick Vanover's eight catches made him the first player since Lawrence Dawsey caught eight against Memphis State in 1990.

*** FSU injuries:

OT Robert Stevenson possible fracture of his left hand. Did not play in the second half. X rays will be taken tonight. DE Lewis Tyre dislocated his left ring finger during the game. Returned to play. CB Corey Fuller suffered bruised ribs.

*** Quotes from FSU Head Coach Bobby Bowden:

"I guess I was pretty pleased with the way we played tonight. Except for some penalties and some inconsistency because of playing a lot of people. We couldn't really get a lot going tonight, especially in the second half. I guess that comes from running so many people into the game. We've got to get a lot better this week or we'll get slaughtered next Saturday. I am surprised about the Miami score, but it's the best thing that could have happened to them. It was a wake up call. If they had won 40-0, it could have been bad for them. Now they know it will be a real war next week.

"We played so many kids tonight it caused some breakdowns. We can't have breakdowns next week. That Vanover is just a great athlete. He has great speed and he's big. His catches in the first half really took the momentum of the game away from Wake Forest. I thought Charlie Ward played well. He had no interceptions tonight. He had one or two little problems, but for the most part he played flawlessly. I expect Miami to be as good as anybody in the nation next week. I'm sure they'll play like the No. 1 team in the country. "

*** Wake Forest Head Coach Bill Dooley:

"FSU is an excellent team. I'm really proud of our team. They gave good effort. The kicking game really hurt us tonight. We had very poor kick coverage. FSU is a big play team. I can't say enough about Charlie Ward. He just gets better and better. Our defense did a good job, caused a few fumbles and held FSU to seven points in the second half. We had our chances offensively. Keith West threw well before the elbow injury forced him out. FSU's rush caused some problems for us. Particularly against our patchwork offensive line. FSU is a strong defensive team with good speed. Their second teamers compare to most first teams. Rusty LaRue did an excellent job for us coming in for the injured West and he'll be an outstanding quarterback someday.

*** Wake Forest Tight End John Henry Mills:

"I'm not happy with the outcome. We played our hearts out. The team did the best they could. Now we just have to get ready for Virginia. FSU's speed was a problem for us. We couldn't contain them.

Wake Forest Defensive End Mike McCrary

"Our special teams hurt us tonight. Took the momentum away from us.. Our offense did OK considering we lost three starters. Defensively, what can I say we gave up 35 points. FSU's speed was really a problem for us tonight.
