NC State vs. Florida State

September 12, 1998
Carter-Finley Stadium
Game Notes

- Torry Holt's 67-yard punt return for a touchdown is the longest punt return for NC State since Ledell George returned one 73 yards vs. Appalachian State in 1992. In addition, Holt's punt-return TD is the first for the Wolfpack since George's vs. Appalachian in '92.

- NC State's six pass interceptions are the most by the Wolfpack since a school-record seven picks against Iowa in 1965, a 28-20 win by NC State. Previously, the second-most interceptions by NC State in a game was five against Virginia Tech in 1991.

- NC State has outscored Florida State 59-28 in the last seven quarters of football between the two schools, dating back to last year's 48-35 win by the Seminoles in Tallahassee.

- Since Florida State joined the ACC in 1992, the Seminoles have trailed heading into the fourth quarter just three times (today, vs. Virginia in 1995, and vs. Georgia Tech in 1992) and have now lost two games to ACC teams (Virginia in '95 and today to NC State).

- Today's loss is Florida State's first against a non-ranked opponent since Brett Favre led Souther Mississippi to a 30-26 win over the Noles in 1989. FSU had beaten 58 consecutive non-ranked opponents since then.

- Chris Weinke's six interceptions thrown today set a new individual record for INTs by a Florida State quarterback. The previous record was five by Bill Cappelman against Virginia Tech in 1968.

- Today was the first time Florida State had been shut out for three quarters in a football game since Auburn defeated the Seminoles 20-17 in 1990. The last time FSU was held scoreless for three straight quarters was in a 31-0 loss to Miami in 1988.
