Virginia Tech Halftime Notes
Virginia Tech vs. Florida State
Dec. 3, 2005 * Alltel Stadium * ACC Championship Game

* Virginia Tech won the toss and deferred its choice to the second half. Florida State elected to receive.

* Cedric Humes earned the last-minute start at tailback, replacing Mike Imoh. Imoh entered the game for Tech's second offensive series.

* Florida State scored three first-quarter points, bringing Tech's total for points allowed in the first quarter on the season to 13. The last game Tech gave up points in the first quarter was Miami, allowing three points. Tech gave up a touchdown to NC State in the opener. State is the only other team in 12 games to score on Tech in its first offensive series of the game.

* Brandon Pace's 45-yard field goal in the first quarter was a season-long. He hit two 44-yarders earlier in the year. His career long is 46 yards, coming last year against West Virginia.

* The six combined points in the first half are the least amount in a Tech game this year. Last week, Tech led North Carolina 6-3 at the break.

* Tech's 5 yards rushing in the first half are a season low. The previous halftime low was 47 yards against Miami. The Seminoles' 17 yards rushing at the break are the second-fewest allowed by the Hokies this year, surpassing Boston College's 21 yards at the half, but trailing Duke's 1 yard. It's the fewest combined yards (22) on the ground at the half in a Tech game.

FLORIDA STATE VS. VIRGINIA TECH
ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
December 3, 2005

GAME NOTES

FIRST HALF

JUST THREE GAMES OFF OVER LAST FIVE YEARS

Florida State and Virginia Tech's records are closer than one would think over the last five seasons. In fact, Virginia Tech has won just three more games than Florida State has over the last five seasons.

FSU		Virginia Tech
8-4		8-4
9-5	ACC Champs	10-4
10-3	ACC Champs	8-5
9-3		10-3 ACC Champs
7-4		10-1
43-19		46-17

THE FIRST

When Florida State scored on its first possession tonight, it was the first time the Seminoles have scored on their first possession since the Maryland game on October 29th which is the last time FSU won a game this season. FSU is 7-0 this season when scoring first in a game.

BEEN RARE LATELY

By the time Florida State gained possession of the ball for the second time in tonight's game, the Seminoles had led for 3:47. What makes that a note is the fact that the Seminoles had only led its opponent for a total of 3:28 over the previous three games combined. FSU led only NC State 10-7 for that period of time in the second quarter.

BUNKLEY TIES RECORD

With 1 ½ tackles for loss by tonight's second quarter, Brodrick Bunkley, a second team All-ACC selection, leads the ACC with 22 tackles for loss which ties an FSU single-season record with Darnell Dockett, who had 22 tackles for loss in 2001. For his career, Bunkley now has 34 tackles for loss which moves him into fifth place all-time at FSU and passed former Seminole Corey Simon who finished his career with 33.

WEATHERFORD MOVES INTO SECOND PLACE

With 115 passing yards in tonight's first half, Drew Weatherford now has 2,840 career passing yards which moves him into second place on the ACC Freshman passing list. He moved past FSU's Chris Rix (2,734) and trails NC State's Phillip Rivers, the record holder with 3,054 yards, by 214 yards.

TIED AT THE HALF

The last time FSU was tied at halftime was at Clemson when the score was knotted at 14-14. The Seminoles lost that game 35-14.

JUST LIKE LAST TIME

The last time FSU and Virginia Tech played each other, which was right here in Jacksonville in the 2002 Gator Bowl, the FSU defense also held the Hokies to just three first-half points. FSU won that game 30-17.
