

SEMINOLE LINKSMEN—Pictured above are six members of the Florida State University golf squad which rolled up eight victories against one defeat in regular season play. Members of the group photo are, left to right: Dick Montney, Ted Hewitt, Joe Bassett, Bill Rachie and Capt Hank Mercer. Sonny Tinney, Tallahassee boy and former state intercollegiate champ, is shown at the far left. Capt Mercer, Hewitt, Tinney and Bassett are expected to form FSU's team in the Dixie loop tourney this weekend.

— F O L T — F . D .

Letters Given To Fifty FSU Athletes

Fifty Florida State University athletes were awarded letters or numerals here last night at the annual spring sports banquet. Dr Otis McBride, dean of men, was master of ceremonies and Dr Ralph L. Eyman, dean of the school of education, was principal speaker.

Dr Eyman stressed in his talk that the goal of Florida State University was to "produce great leaders who in later years will help build great communities." He complimented players and coaches on the fine records compiled by Florida State teams in the spring sports program.

Dr Doak S. Campbell, president of the University, also commended the athletes on the fine showing that had made for the school.

Costello Presents Trophy

Letters were presented by members of the coaching staff to the tennis team, Dixie Conference champions; the baseball team, Dixie Conference runner-ups; the golf team, Dixie Conference runner-ups, and the track team which finished fourth in the conference meet at Macon. Jim Costello, captain of the tennis squad, presented the trophy symbolic of the conference championship, to Dr Howard G. Danford, Florida State athletic director.

Donald Loucks, varsity tennis coach, awarded letters to the following players: Captain Jim Costello, Lawrence Dickson, Robert Jarrett, Herbert Quay, Oscar Jackson, George Newman, Richard Bradley, George Scott and Manager James Murray.

Bob Harbison, varsity golf coach, awarded letters to Sonny Tinney, Dixie Conference tournament medalist, Captain Hank Mercer, Ted Hewitt, Joseph Bassett, Richard Montney and Wiley Watkins.

Baseball letters and numerals were awarded by Head Coach Charlie Armstrong to Captain Sam Cox, Allen Dozier, George Boyd, Lamar Brown, Royce Burt, Calvin Collins, Rodger Drohan, Sam Fann, Glen Gresham, Ronald Melton, Ronald Nettles, William Parker, Bob Trowbridge and Manager Clyde Wiggins. Numerals to T. J. Lanier and John Luker.

The track letters and numerals, presented by Coach Ken Miller, went to Captain-elect Albert Bradford, Norman Eubanks, Edward Fox, George Grosskopf, David Harden, Ed Kucera, James Lohmeyer, Charles Mahoney, James May, Bob McCall, Andrew Milan, William Roger, John Thombleson, Joe Wells and William Weigel. Numerals were awarded to managers Gordon Cox, Milton Roberts and Joe Wright.