

FSU Golfers Top Gators For Title

Host Florida State captured the Seminole Invitational golf tournament Sunday, finishing four strokes ahead of defending National Collegiate Athletic Association champion Florida.

Florida State's five man team finished with 872 strokes as Todd Crandall led the way with an even par 216 total for 54 holes on the par 72 Seminole Golf Course. Teammates John Godwin and Doug Fischesser each had 219.

Medalist honors went to Buddy Alexander of Georgia Southern, who had three-under-par 213. Alexander finished with a round of 66 Sunday.

Runnerup to Alexander was Andy Bean of Florida with a 214, including a 74 Sunday.

The team standings:

Florida State 872, Florida 876, Georgia Southern 877, Louisiana State University 878, Alabama 881, Georgia 882, Ball State 888, Memphis State 892, Auburn 894, Columbus, Ga., College 903, Georgia Tech 904, South Florida 907, Tulane 908, Rollins 910, Tennessee 911, Chipola Junior College and Florida International 919, Mississippi 920, Alexander City Junior College 924, Marshall 930, Florida A&M 966 and Cleveland State 1,005.

Seminoles win golf invitational

Florida State University came from twelve strokes off the pace to win the Florida State Invitational Golf Tournament at Seminole Golf Course Sunday.

The Tribe finished at a total of 872 and Florida was second at 876. Georgia Southern (877), LSU (878), and Alabama (881) rounded out the top five.

Georgia Southern's Buddy Alexander was the individual winner as he shot a blistering 66 and finished the three-day tourney at 213. Billy Kratcher of Georgia finished second at 214.

Florida State captain Todd Crandall finished fourth at 216. Crandall had a 70 for Sunday's round. Teammate Doug Fischesser had a 69 for 218. John Godwin had a 219 total and Kim Heisler (222), Frank Zayat (229) and Bob Impaglia (227) rounded out the Tribe's scoring.