

Seminole golfers are sixth

PORT ST. LUCIE (AP) — Florida Atlantic and Florida State 296, Jacksonville 297, Rollins 298, St. Leo 304, Florida Southern 306, Florida Tech 311, Stetson and Tampa 312, Embry Riddle 315 and Biscayne 327.

The Hurricanes finished Thursday's first round with a team total of 283 to 287 for runnerup South Florida as Chris Harries and Brian Rothaus shot 71s and Albert Evers a 72.

Third in the team race entering Friday's 36 holes of play was Florida at 290. Florida International has 294,

Also at 69 in the individual battle is Terry LaCrosse of South Florida. Clarence Jones of FIU has 70, Tom Roberts of Florida Atlantic and Dallas Apelgren of Florida have 71.

The tournament concludes with 18 holes on Saturday on the 6,717-yard Sinners Course.

Seminoles in third place

Special to the Democrat

PORT ST. LUCIE — Florida State's golf team enters today's final round of the Florida State Intercollegiate tournament in third place, 17 strokes back of the University of Florida and 11 shots behind South Florida. The leading team has a combined score of 863.

The Seminoles' Hal Cook stands fourth in individual scoring with a three-round total of 217. South Florida's Doug LaCrosse leads with 212.

Buz Wooten is the No. 2 Seminole with 220, followed by Kenny Knox (222), Kenny Szuch (223), Terry Anton (228) and Chip Curley (231).

From the Tallahassee Democrat

November 9, 1975

Page 47

FSU takes second

Special to the Democrat

PORT. ST. LUCIE — Terry Anton fired a five-under par 67 to pull Florida State's golf team into a second place finish at the Florida Intercollegiate Golf tournament here Saturday.

Anton finished the tournament in eighth place among individual leaders.

Anton leads Tribe comeback with 67

Terry Anton's five-under par 67 led a final round surge as the Florida State golf team pulled into a second place finish at the Florida Intercollegiate golf tournament Saturday.

The Seminoles finished 16 strokes behind the University of Florida and two strokes ahead of the University of South Florida. In third place going into the final round, the FSU squad picked up 12 strokes on USF in the final round.

Anton finished the tournament with a 295 total. His 67 on Saturday tied the low score for the four-day tournament.

FSU's Kenny Knox finished the tournament with a 296 total, Buz Wooten had a 298, Chip Curley had 299 total while Kenny Szuch and Hal Cook finished at 300.