

Hepler, FSU finish strong

Special to the Democrat

STATESBORO, Ga. — Florida State's Denny Hepler fired a final-round 65 at the Schenkel Invitational here Sunday and charged into second place in the individual competition.

Hepler's round, which tied for low round in the tourney, helped push the Seminoles from 11th to seventh on the final day. Georgia Southern won the tourney with an 846 total, followed by host Georgia Southern at 859.

Georgia's Jim Becker won the individual title with a 206 total.

Also for the Seminoles, Kenny Knox shot a final round 69 to finish in 13th place at 215. John Juvenal finished at 221, followed by Richard Jeffers (226) and Chip Curley (226).