WRITTEN FOR USE AS DESIRED

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.--Playing steady golf all day, the Florida State golf team defeated North Carolina by four strokes to win the 13th Annual Seminole Invitational Sunday at Seminole Golf Course.

FSU shot a third day total 290 for a 54-hole 859. North Carolina was second at 863, third was Florida at 869, fourth Tennessee 877, and fifth was Georgia Southern 878. Rounding out the top ten were Auburn and South Florida 883, Mississippi State 885, Alabama 886 and LSU 894.

Individually, Georgia Southern golfer Jodie Mudd proved why he is rated the No.1 collegiate golfer in the nation shooting a final round 68 for a 209 first place total. Following Mudd was Tar Heel player Bill Plyler at 212. Tied for third were four players including Florida State player Mike Keymont who carded a 68 Sunday to help FSU fend off the North Carolina challenge. Tying Keymont was John Given of Florida, John Spelman of North Carolina Tim Krapfel of Auburn. Krapfel was the day's individual medalist shooting a 67 on the wind blown course.

"I'm very proud of players for hanging on to a lead in a very difficult field," said FSU head coach Don Veller. "When you have a lead after the second round you tend to get complacent. Our players attacked the course today and came away with a very big win."
