Tallahassee, FL - The Florida State men's golf team finished in a tie for ninth place at the Kiawah Island Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Kiawah Island, SC on Tuesday afternoon.

The Seminoles three round total of 873 tied East Carolina in ninth and was 19 shots back of tournament champion Houston.

Senior Bobby Cochrane, who made it to the semifinals of the United State Amateur last month, placed second in the event. Cochrane led the tourney by one stroke heading into the final 18 holes after posting a pair of five-under par 67s yesterday. But Cochrane shot a one-over 73 today to finish at nine-under par 207, seven shots behind Del Ponchock of Maryland.

Others Seminoles to finish included: Christian Raynor, tied for 41st, 223; Ryan Perna and Denny Tymosko, tied for 47th, 224; and Keith Rick, tied for 66th, 228.

Florida State travels to the Tournament of Champions in Knoxville, TN on October 3rd and 4th.
