ROCKY MOUNT, NC-The Florida State men's golf team had its best ACC Tournament finish in school history by finishing third at the ACC Men's Golf Tournament held at Northgreen Country Club in Rocky Mount, NC. FSU fired a final round 295 for a tournament total 877 to finish four strokes behind runner-up North Carolina and thirteen strokes behind four time defending team champion Georgia Tech. The Hokies third place finish eclipses the team's eighth and ninth place finishes in the team's two only other ACC Golf Championship appearances.

Florida State was led by Bobby Cochran who carded a final round 71 for a three day total of 212. Cochran finished in second place, three shots behind Mikko Rantanen of Georgia Tech. Christian Raynor fired a third round 74 to finish with a 220, and finished in a tie for 10th.

Other Seminoles include Ken Staton, (72-71-81-224), in a tie for 20th, Ryan Perna, (79-74-77-230), in a tie for 30th, and Tony Ziegler, (78-84-73-235), in 41st.

Florida State continues its golf season May 13-14 at the Wofford Invitational.

FLORIDA STATE WOMEN'S GOLF

BERMUDA RUN, NC-The Florida State women's golf team finished in fourth place at the ACC Women's Golf Championships held at Old North State Course in Bermuda Run, NC. FSU shot a final round 319 for a tournament total of 957 to finish 33 strokes behind team champion Wake Forest.

Karen Stupples led all Lady Seminoles by shooting a final round one-over-par 73 for a tournament total 231. Stupples finished in a tie for 4th place, 10 strokes behind winner Kathi Poppmeier of Duke. Tiffany Faucette carded a final round 82 for a final round 241 to finish in a tie for 13th.

Other Lady Seminoles include Mabel Pascual del Pobil, (78-82-82-242), in a tie for 15th, Maria Castellucci, (80-81-82-243), in a tie for 16th, and Kate Burton, (81-83-87-251), in a tie for 19th.
