FLORIDA STATE MEN'S GOLF
November 1, 1994

Baton Rouge, LA -- The Florida State men's golf team finished the third and final round of the Country Club of Louisiana/LSU Invitational tied for eighth place along with the University of Georgia. The 'Noles fired a combined score of 297-298-305-900.

The University of Tennessee won the team title by two strokes over N.C. State and four over Florida with the host team, LSU, coming in fourth.

Tennessee was led by the individual champion Jamie Neher who shot 70-68-75-213 to finish three shots better than the trio of Chip Spratlin of Auburn, Dennis Hillman of Tulsa, and Josh McCumber of Florida. Christian Raynor and Ken Staton led the Seminoles with final scores of 226. Raynor and Staton finished the tournament tied for 22nd.

The Seminoles will travel to Hilton Head, SC, on November 11, to take on the nations best teams at the Golf World Invitational.
