FSU WINS SEMINOLE CLASSIC -- RAYNOR LOSES IN SUDDEN DEATH

March 14, 1995

TALLAHASSEE, FL--The Florida State men's golf team combined for a final round score of 290 to capture the Seminole classic at the Players Club at SummerBrooke. The Seminoles edged South Alabama and South Florida for the title.

The tournament came to an exciting conclusion when Ricky Michelmores of South Florida won the individual championship on the third hole of sudden death, beating FSU's Christian Raynor. It marked the second consecutive year that Raynor lost the championship of the classic in sudden death.

Although Raynor did not win the individual honors, his 210 total helped help bring home the team championship and coach Ernie Lanford was proud of him. "I'm very proud of the entire team," said an exuberant Lanford. "But especially Christian. He has helped this team win more championship's in the last four years than any player that I can remember.

"It takes a complete team to win a team championship and I'm proud of all of them."

FSU's Ken Staton finished the tournament tied for 17th with a 221. George McNeil, Richard Fulford, and Jason Pool all finished tied for 22nd with 222's.
