RICHARD FULFORD SELECTED TO ALL-ACC GOLF TEAM

Tallahassee. FL--Junior Richard Fulford was selected to the 1996 All-ACC Men's Golf Team on Friday. The team of 10 players was selected by the nine ACC golf coaches.

Fulford, a native of Johannesburg, South Africa, is in his second season as a member of the Seminole golf team. Fulford has three top 5 finishes this year, including a tied for third place finish in the ACC Championships held last week. Fulford, a preseason honorable mention All-American choice by Golf Week, also finished second in the Killearn-Seminole Classic and a tied for second place finish at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championship.

Fulford stepped into Florida State's line-up last year as a transfer student from George Wallace Junior College in Alabama. He competed in all 13 tournaments for the Seminoles last year, including a tied for 29th performance at the NCAA Championships.

Simon Cooke of Virginia won the Player of the Year award while Tim Clark of North Carolina State claimed the Freshman of the Year honors. Clemson's Larry Penley won Coach of the Year honors.
