Augusta State's Michael Webb birdied the third playoff to defeat Tennessee's Andrew Black in the Coca-Cola Tournament of Champions at Holston Hills Country Club in Knoxville.

Webb's 54-hole total of 207, 9-under par also led Augusta State to the team title. Augusta State finished in a tie with Virginia after 54-holes with a team score of 859, 5-under par. The Jaguars posted a team score of even par on the first playoff hole to better the Cavalier's team score of 1-over par.

Tennessee finished third with a team score of 865, 1- over par. Fourth place went to North Carolina State with a 12-over, 876 total.

Black birdied the final four holes to shoot a final round 65 to force the playoff with Webb who posted a final round score of 68. Black's 65 tied the Tournament of Champions record for lowest round.

On the third playoff hole, Webb hit a 9-iron from 145 yards to within 3-feet of the hole. Black's approach shot then went over the green. He failed to get up and down for par, and Webb sank the 3-footer for the win.
