FLORIDA STATE MEN'S GOLF TEAM CONCLUDES FALL SEASON AT LOUISIANA INVITATIONAL

BATON ROUGE, La. – Florida state junior Jason Lopez shot a team-leading one-over par 73 in the final round of the Country Club of Louisiana Invitational to lead the Seminoles to a 13th place finish in the 54-hole event which concluded Tuesday. Lopez was the Seminoles' top golfer on a day when all five members shot 75 or better. Florida State recorded its tournament-low 297 during the final round.

Lopez shot a 54-hole total of 224 (eight-over par) to place second among the Seminoles and tied for 35th in the event. Junior Rick Westbrook led the Seminoles with a 221 (five-over par) three-day score that included a career-low 69 in Monday's second round. Seniors Mark Donaldson and Kris Hannah and freshman Rusty Mosley each carded three-over par scores of 75 in the final round.

Louisiana State came from four shots back to win the tournament with a final-round two-under par 286. Led by tournament medalist Alan Morgan's 10-under par performance in the tournament, the Tigers held off second-place Tulsa by two shots and third-place Alabama-Birmingham by three.

The event concluded a fine fall season for the Seminoles. Florida State recorded three top-10 team finishes and three individuals (Donaldson, Hannah and Westbrook) all earned at least one top-25 individual finish each. The team begins play in the traditional spring season at the Beau Rivage College Classic in Gulfport, Miss., on Feb. 12 and 13, 2001.
