South Carolina Sets New Record, Hartwick Takes Individual Title at Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championship

PONTE VEDRA, Fla. (February 10, 2004) – The University of South Carolina shattered the old tournament record at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate Championship for largest margin of victory, beating out Oklahoma State and Florida by 27 shots to capture the 2004 MBCC in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

South Carolina topped the old record – which it held since 1998 – by 12 strokes, as it finished with a three-round total of 861.

Texas' Jason Hartwick captured the individual title after he opened with a 31 on the front nine Tuesday and closed the tournament with a 67.

Hartwick finished with a three-round total of 211 (5-under par).

Hartwick opened with a 1-under 71, holding the first round lead with the South Carolina duo of Jake Thompson and Alex Hamilton. Hartwick slipped to fifth after the second round of play, but quickly shot back up the leaderboard to beat out South Carolina's Erik Johansen by three strokes. Clemson's Gregg Jones and Thompson finished tied for third at 1-under par, 215.

The University of North Florida jumped upped another two positions Tuesday, as it tied for eighth with Kentucky. UNF shot a three-round total of 898 after closing with a 288. After opening with a 318, the Ospreys put together the fifth best round of the day Monday and closed with the third best round of the day and fourth best round of the tournament. UNF had a chance to jump in front of Kentucky by a stroke on the last hole, but couldn't do so after John Limanti's putt on his final hole lipped out of the cup.

Despite missing the birdie opportunity to finish his day, Limanti finished the event with a 73 Tuesday, which was good enough to leave him tied for 18th. B.K. Suhr put together the Ospreys round of the day with a 2-under par 70. Suhr's only bogey on the afternoon came on the 18th hole (his ninth of the day) after he put his tee shot in the water.

Tyler Brown eagled the par 5 fifth hole for the Ospreys on his way to a 1-under 71, while Michael Young shot a 74 and Matt Torrance closed with a 79.

Tuesday's highlights included a hole in one by Kentucky's Brandon Waltrip and a pair of 31s on the front nine, fired by Hartwick and Johansen.

The UNF golf team will continue its version of the Florida Swing when it heads to Tallahassee for the Seminole Intercollegiate March 1-2.
