The University of South Carolina men's swim team won the 1991 METRO/NIC Swimming and Diving Championships in Columbia, SC. The victory was the Gamecocks eighth straight Metro/NIC title. First year head coach Keith Switzer was voted the Metro and Metro/NIC coach of the year. The Gamecocks finished first in the Metro competition defeating Florida State. In NIC competition, the Gamecocks defeated Florida State 904-675. Gamecocks swimmer Mark Smith was voted Metro Swimmer of the Year. Smith a junior, and teammate Ray Burton were voted Metro/NIC Swimmers of the Year. Gamecock diving coach Glen Galembo was voted Metro Diving Coach of the Year.

The Florida State Seminoles ousted the Lady Gamecocks. The title was decided on the last event of the evening the 800 free relay. Florida State defeated the Lady Gamecocks by only .01 hundredth of a second. Lady Gamecock Michele Smith was voted Metro Swimmer of the Year. Julianne Bauer, USC's top diver, was awarded with Metro Diver of the Year, and her coach Glen Galembo was voted Metro Diving Coach of the Year. In NIC Competition, Miami defeated South Carolina 688-639. Miami relied heavily on their tremendous group of women divers.
