The Dallas Morning News Swim Classic

DALLAS (SMU) – After one day of competition, the Nebraska Huskers men's swim team (171 points) leads SMU (170 points) by one point in the team standings of The Dallas Morning News Swim Classic.

SMU finished strong in several events, including first place finishes in the 50 yard freestyle, one meter diving and the 800 yard freestyle relay. But the Mustangs couldn't shake the Huskers who also grabbed three first place finishes in the 400 yard medley relay, 400 yard IM and 100 yard butterfly.

The fastest event of the night belonged to SMU as junior Brandon Jernigan (20.75) finished first in the consolation heat of the 50 yard freestyle, and Mustang sophomore Matt Weghorst (20:49) out-touched LSU's Ken Kuhn (20:60) for the top time in the championship heat.

After trailing Nebraska in the team standings through the first half of the evening's events, the Mustangs pulled ahead with a first place finish in the one meter diving event. Freshman Brice Dumais (301.05) edged out Erik Cooke (298.15) from Nebraska to give the Mustangs a small lead heading into the final events of the day.

Nebraska senior Adam Pine easily claimed the 100 yard butterfly title finishing the race in 47.81 seconds, only .17 seconds behind former Mustang Lars Frolander's record of 47.64 set in 1998.

The meet will resume tomorrow, 7:30 p.m. at Perkins Natatorium.
