

FSU Netters Down Emory For 9th Win

The Florida State University tennis team breezed to its ninth win of the season yesterday by downing Emory University, 5 to 2.

FSU's Seminole netters swept all five of the single matches, and then dropped two close doubles.

Jim Costello, lanky number three man for FSU from Miami, won his tenth straight match of the season, and his twentieth in 21 over a two-year span, when he disposed of Emory's Gelburd, 6-3, 6-2.

Singles results with FSU players listed first: Quay over Kocan, 6-3, 6-3; Dickson over Haldi, 8-6, 6-0; Costello over Gelburd, 6-3, 6-2; Newman over Johnson, 6-1, 6-1; Jackson over Rowell, 6-2, 6-0;

Doubles results with FSU players listed first: Scott and Diamond lost to Kocan and Haldi, 5-7, 8-6, 2-6; Voth and Bevis lost to Gelburd and Johnson, 4-6, 7-5, 3-6.