

FSU Netmen Top Stetson To End Season

Florida State University's tennis squad closed its season and got revenge yesterday with a 6-3 victory over Stetson University on the West campus courts.

The Seminoles, who had lost a previous encounter to the Hatters, finished the season with a record of 11 wins and two defeats.

Captain Jim Costello finished the season unbeaten when he polished off Hatter Cooper Kirk, 6-3, 6-1, in the number three singles. The win was Costello's 24th out of 25 over a two-year span.

Coach Don Loucks' Indian netters took four singles matches and two doubles from the Hatters.

Stetson's Pinky Zipprer put his mates out in front when he downed FSU's Larry Dickson in the first match, but the Seminoles won the next four.

FSU sewed it up in the doubles when Dickson and Jim Costello swept past Kirk and Uthlaut.
