

Florida State University's tennis team salvaged one victory in three weekend matches here yesterday afternoon, trouncing Emory University 8-1.

The Seminole netmen had lost to Loyola of the South (New Orleans) Friday afternoon and then fell to Indiana that afternoon.

Billy Yon and Gene Caverly took a doubles match in three sets from Florida State's Tom Bablone and Dick Bradley to save the Georgians from a shutout.

Summaries:

Singles: Bob Lanigan, FSU, defeated Morris Dillard 6-3, 2-6, 7-5. Jack Egan, FSU, defeated Jack Haldi 6-3, 6-3. Jim Berry, FSU, defeated Billy Yon 6-2, 6-2. Larry Dickson, FSU, defeated Gene Caverly 6-3, 6-0. Ned Cooper, FSU, defeated Harris Asbury 6-4, 6-4. Dan Boda, FSU, defeated Sandy Kimball 7-5, 6-4.

Doubles—Berry and Egan, FSU, defeated Dillard and Haldi 6-2, 6-0. Yon and Caverly, Emory, defeated Tom Bablone and Dick Bradley 3-6, 6-0, 10-8. Cooper and George Martin, FSU, defeated Asbury and Harry Cooper 2-6, 6-2, 6-3.