

Rollins College's smooth-stroking tennis team, probably the best collegiate net squad in Florida, won an easy 8-1 decision over Florida State on the Seminoles' varsity courts here yesterday.

Rollins took all but one of the six singles matches and three doubles events to rack up its seventh victory against one defeat. It was the fifth loss for FSU after 10 triumphs.

The summary:

SINGLES—Charles Warden (R) defeated Hal Schaus (FSU), 6-0, 6-2; Tom Cundy (FSU) defeated Al Daniel (R), 3-6, 6-2; Memo Garcia (R) defeated Shelby Creagh (FSU), 6-1, 6-1; George Longshore (R) defeated Tom Morgan (FSU), 6-1, 6-1; Eduardo Garcia (R) defeated Jack Egan (FSU), 4-0, 4-3; Guy Fillosof (R) defeated Don Wily (FSU), 6-1, 6-3.

DOUBLES — Longshore-M. Garcia defeated Schaus-Cundy, 6-0, 4-6, 6-2; Daniel-E. Garcia defeated Wily-Creagh, 3-7, 6-1, 7-5; Warden-Fillosof defeated Morgan-Egan, 6-1, 7-5.
