PENSACOLA, May 7—A strong Pensacola Naval Air Station tennis team, manned with a host of former collegiate stars, spoiled Florida State's 1955 tennis finale, 8-1, here today.

Keith Pitchford's Seminoles still finished in grand style. Playing their toughest schedule over this season, the Tribe outstroked Georgia, Georgia Tech, Auburn, Mississippi State, Ohio State, and others on the way to a fine 10-6 windup.

Tom Cundy and Don Wyly teamed up to give FSU its only win, in doubles, today.

The results:

Peterson over Hal Schaus (FSU), 6-4, 6-2; Fish over Tom Cundy (FSU), 6-4, 6-4; Pope over Shelby Creagh (FSU), 10-8, 6-3; Glade over Don Wyly (FSU), 6-3, 6-2; Harris over Shelby Brewer (FSU), 6-0, 6-0; Barnett over Dick Walker (FSU), 6-4, 6-3; Fish-Peterson over Schaus-Creagh, 6-4, 6-1; Cundy-Wyly over Romaine-Johnson, 6-4, 6-3; Skellis-Barron over Williams-Kersay, 6-0, 6-3.
