

FSU's improving tennis team was after its seventh straight tennis success today in a dual meet with Amherst on the Seminole courts.

The once-beaten Seminoles trimmed Navy, 5-4, at Jacksonville yesterday in the first test of a new scoring system.

All matches were played on a 21-point "table tennis" scoring system devised by James Van Alen, a U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn. official from Rhode Island who was in Jacksonville for the match.

Rebel Bellamy, FSU, def. Nick Temple, 21-23, 21-10, 21-18.

Gordie Smith, FSU, def. Dave Haughton, 21-18, 21-12.

Colin Fox, N, def. Ed Fasula, 18-21, 21-18, 21-19.

Howard Levy, FSU, def. Bill Moore, 21-17, 21-19.

Rick Fluegel, N, def. Buddy McClain, 21-19, 21-17.

Alex Sutor, FSU, def. Mike Willsey, 21-19, 21-15.

Bellamy-Smith def. Moore-Haughton, 21-9, 21-14.

Temple-Fox def. Fasula-McClain, 21-13, 11-21, 21-13.

Fluegel-Willsey def. Levy-Sutor, 10-21, 21-10, 21-17.