

Kalamazoo Drops Two To Seminole Netters

FSU netters won two matches from Kalamazoo college and a single engagement with U. of Virginia during a brief March 25-27 home stand, to elevate their season record to 4-2.

Seminole racquetmen did not lose any singles matches during the two encounters, and dropped only one doubles contest to Kalamazoo. The Tribe dumped Kalamazoo, 9-0 Monday morning and scored a 5-1 victory over the Michigan school on Tuesday afternoon.

Dave Danielson's play at the No. 1 spot paced FSU, as his pounding firehand earned 6-3, 7-5 and 3-6, 6-4, 7-5 victories on successive days. Danielson teamed with Al Procopio to forge a pair of doubles wins.

Herb Rapp's service and wide-angle volleying were instrumental in hammering identical 6-2, 6-2 triumphs versus his Kalamazoo opponent. Rapp and Scott Bristol dominated net play to score a pair of easy doubles points.

Propcio slashed ground strokes and volleyed with precision to down his Kalamazoo foe 6-3, 6-0 and 7-5, 6-1 on successive days.

Consistent all-court play propelled Bristol to twin triumphs, 4, 6-1 and 3-6, 6-4, 8-6. Bristol and Rapp, including their wins over Virginia mentioned below, have registered identical 5-1 personal singles marks this season.

Roberto Marcher and John DeZeeuw posted two singles wins apiece and teamed for a doubles victory over Kalamazoo. Marcher's passing shots were evident in recording victories by 6-2, 6-1 and 6-8, 8-6, 6-3. DeZeeuw stroked and volleyed with fluid grace to score, 6-2, 6-2 and 6-4, 7-5.

The Tribe's lone point loss to Kalamazoo was yielded Tuesday by Randy Jobson and Clint Murphy in a 6-1, 6-2 doubles contest.

FSU swept six singles matches from U. Virginia on Wednesday morning. At press time, the doubles encounters were still in progress.

But the 6-0 tally assured FSU of a team victory. Seminoles posted victories by the following scores: (1) Dave Danielson (6-4, 6-3), (2) Herb Rapp (6-2, 6-2) (3) Al Procopio (4-6, 6-3, 6-3), (4) John DeZeeuw (6-2, 6-1), (5) Roberto Marcher (6) Scott Bristol (6-2, 6-0).

Couch Lex Wood's netters traveled to Starkville, Mississippi, yesterday to begin a round-robin schedule of dual matches involving Mississippi State, Okalahoma, Michigan State, and FSU. These matches will conclude Saturday, after which the Tribe will return to Tallahassee for a meeting with Columbia U. on Monday, April 1.
