

Sweeping all but one singles match and winning all doubles events, Florida State's tennis team downed Presbyterian 8-1 here yesterday.

It was the 18th consecutive home victory for the Tribe.

The Seminoles' Dave Danielson tripped Presbyterian's No. 1 man, Jim Amaya, a Colombian student 5-7, 9-7, 6-3 in the highlight match.

The results:

SINGLES

Dave Danielson (FSU) beat Jim Amaya (PSC), 5-7, 9-7, 6-3; George Amaya (PSC) beat Herb Rapp (FSU) 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; Bob Marcher (FSU) beat Ben Gregg, 6-3, 6-0; John DeZeeuw (FSU) beat Craig McKenzie (PSC), 6-2, 6-0; Al Procopio (FSU) beat Hart Cobb (PSC), 6-2, 6-0; Scott Bristol (FSU) beat Howard Pierce (PSC); 6-0, 6-2.

DOUBLES

Danielson-DeZeeuw beat Amaya-Amaya, 6-3, 6-4; Procopio-Rapp beat Gregg-McKenzie 4-3, 6-1; Marcher-Bristol beat Cobb-Pierce 6-2, 6-3.