

Special to The Democrat

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex.

— Florida State University's netters dropped a pair of decisions in the Corpus Christi Invitational tennis tourney, losing Thursday to Corpus, and Friday to Texas Tech.

The Seminoles fell 6-1 to Corpus, with Herb Rapp and Al Procopio capturing the only FSU win with a double victory.

Yesterday, Texas Tech toppled the Tribe netters, 5-2. Rapp took a decision in the No. 1 singles match, and teamed with Procopio again for a doubles victory.

The Seminoles face Baylor today, in the final day of the tourney.