FSU loses tennis coach

Randy Jobson, Florida State's head tennis coach for the past four seasons, has announced his resignation effective at the end of the current season.

Jobson, who has coached the Seminoles to a 15-6 record this season, will be leaving Florida State to become manager and tennis director at the Pine Forest Raquet Club in Albany, Ga.

"This is one of the hardest decisions that I have ever made in my life," Jobson said. "I love Florida State and loved coaching the team. I felt the opening at Pine Forest was a career opportunity that I could not pass up but at the same time it was difficult to leave FSU."

Jobson leaves Florida State after serving two stints as the Seminole coach. He coached the Florida State tennis team from 1973 until 1975. During that time, Jobson recorded a 38-18 dual-meet record. Jobson returned to the head coaching position in 1980 and his overall coaching record at Florida State for six seasons stands at 100-54.

In 1981, Jobson coached Florida State to its first ever Metro Conference championship and was Metro Coach of the Year for that season. The Intercollegiate Tennis Coaches Association, which compiles the national rankings for collegiate tennis, listed Florida State in the honorable mention section for its preseason top 20 this year — the first time that a Florida State team was ever listed in the rankings.

In addition to his coaching duties, Jobson served as tennis director of Tallahassee's Capital City Country Club (1973-78) and at the Killlearn Golf and Country Club (1978-83).

"Randy Jobson has done an outstanding job with our program," FSU Associate Athletic Director Bob Goin said. "We are happy that he is moving on to an outstanding position, but at the same time we are sorry to be losing such a fine and capable coach. We have every intention of keeping our tennis program at the same high level that Randy has built it to."

Bandits beat Gold in overtime

DENVER (AP) — Rookie running back Greg Boone broke a tackle and made an 11-yard touchdown run to cap a 73-yard overtime drive as the Tampa Bay Bandits downed the Denver Gold 22-16 in United States Football League action Saturday night.

With the victory, the Bandits bounced back from an embarrassing 42-3 loss to Chicago last week

Jobson stepping down as Seminoles' tennis coach

Randy Jobson, Florida State's tennis coach for the past four years, announced Saturday that he will leave the job at the end of the current season to pursue another job opportunity. Jobson said he will leave the Seminoles' program to become manager and tennis director at the Pine Forest Racquet Club in Albany, Ga. Jobson has served twice as coach at Florida State. His teams compiled a 38-18 dual meet record from 1973-75. He returned in 1980 and his overall record for six seasons is 100-54.
