FLORIDA STATE HANDS DEACONS
FIRST ACC LOSS OF THE SEASON

For Immediate Release
(March 23, 1993)

WINSTON-SALEM, NC -- Florida State remained unbeaten in the Atlantic Coast Conference while handing Wake Forest its first setback with a 6-1 victory this afternoon at the Indoor Tennis Center.

The Seminoles set the tone early by sweeping all three pro sets of doubles to take a 1-0 lead, overcoming a delay while the teams moved from the outdoor stadium to the indoor facility due to rain.

In singles, Florida State was equally dominant as it won all but one of its five matches in straight sets. Wake's lone victory came at No. 5, where Jason Marler beat Adam Baron 7-6 (8-6), 6-3.

The loss was Wake's fifth straight while the Seminoles upped their current winning streak to four.
