ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

April 26, 2002

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Four Wake Forest players head up the 12 member 2002 Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Tennis All-Conference Team, as selected by a vote of the league's nine head coaches. Also among the honorees are three players from North Carolina, two from Duke and one from Florida State, Georgia Tech and Maryland.

For the first time since 1991, the Duke Blue Devils have garnered ACC Men's Tennis Player of the Year honors. Phillip King, last year's ACC Rookie of the Year, finished the ACC regular-season with a 7-0 mark at the No. 1 singles slot for the Blue Devils. The Long Beach, Calif., native is currently No. 12 in the latest ITA rankings and has a 18-5 dual match record this season.

This year's ACC Rookie of the Year is Wake Forest's Derrick Spice who in his first season as a Demon Deacon finished the ACC regular-season with a 6-1 record at No. 3 singles and was 6-1 at No. 2 doubles with partner Mike Murray. The North Olmsted, Ohio, native has a Wake Forest single-season school record 36 wins in his first year as a Deacon. Spice is also the first Demon Deacon to garner ACC Men's Tennis Rookie of the Year honors.

North Carolina's Sam Paul was named ACC Coach of the Year, his third such honor. Paul led the Tar Heels to their first ACC Title since 1992. This season his team has recorded a 19-5 overall record, including a 7-1 mark in conference play.

Men's Tennis Falls To North Carolina 6-1

Freshman Mat Cloer wins only point for Seminoles.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team was unable to hand the North Carolina their first conference loss of the season, as the Tribe fell to the Tar Heels 6-1 this afternoon at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. The Seminoles fall to 12-7 on the season and 4-2 in the ACC. With the win, the Tar Heels advance to 13-4 overall and 5-0 in the conference.

Freshman Mat Cloer and sophomore Jarrod Owen logged the only doubles victory for the Seminoles. The tandem defeated Nicholas Monroe and Daniel Pinchbeck 8-6 at the no. 2 position. North Carolina took the no. 1 and no. 3 doubles matches to enter singles with the point advantage.

In singles, Cloer defeated Trysten Menaine of UNC in a 6-3, 3-6, 7-5 decision to earn the Seminoles' only point. Freshman Chip Webb also forced a third set in his match, but fell to Pinchbeck, 6-2, 3-6, 6-4. Senior Xavier Luscan, ranked 38th nationally, lost the no. 1 singles match to 53rd ranked Marcio Petrone, 6-2, 7-5.

The Seminoles will take the week off before heading to Atlanta, Georgia to face the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets on Friday, April 12th. The Seminoles will then return to Tallahassee to finish out their regular season against the Duke Blue Devils.

Wake Forest Hands Seminoles First ACC Loss Of The Season In Men's Tennis
The Seminoles' only win comes from senior Gustav Bucht.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team lost a hard fought battle to the 19th ranked Demon Deacons of Wake Forest Saturday afternoon. The match, however, was a lot closer than the 6-1 decision would imply. The Seminoles' record falls to 12-6 overall and 4-1 in the conference. With the win, the Demon Deacons advance to 14-2 overall and 5-0 in ACC play.

Wake Forest jumped out to an early 1-0 lead after sweeping the doubles matches. But the Seminoles fought back in singles play, forcing a third set in four of the six matches. After the Seminoles went down 3-0, Gustav Bucht earned the sole Seminole point of the afternoon with a win over Wake's Trent Brendon at the no. 5 position (3-6, 6-3, 6-3). However, soon after, sophomore Romain Jurd was unable to overcome a third set rally by David Bere at no. 2 singles (6-2, 3-6, 6-2), which clinched the victory for the Demon Deacons. Freshman Chip Webb, at no. 4, and senior Jeff Scarella, at no. 6, also forced their matches into a third set before retiring to the Demon Deacons.

The Seminoles' match against Florida Atlantic scheduled for tomorrow, Sunday, March 31st has been cancelled so the Seminoles will return to action next Saturday, April 6th at 4 p.m. against the University of North Carolina.

Men's Tennis Downs Wolfpack To Remain Undefeated In ACC Play

The Seminoles did not lose a match in the 7-0 victory.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team moved to 4-0 in conference play and 12-5 overall with a win over N.C. State Wednesday afternoon at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. The 4-0 record marks the Seminoles' best start since the 1995 season when the team, then led by head coach David Barron, opened ACC play with five straight wins. With the loss, the Wolfpack fall to 4-13 overall and 0-3 in the ACC.

In doubles, seniors Gustav Bucht and Jeff Scarella quickly defeated N.C. State's Shane Sealy and John Davis, 8-2, at the no. 3 spot. Soon after, the Seminoles clinched the doubles point with win at the no. 1 position as Xavier Luscan and Rodrigo Laub defeated Matt Lucas and R. J Murray, 8-6. To complete the doubles sweep, Mat Cloer and Jarrod Owen took the no. 2 doubles match over Ryan Boward and Bryce McGrory, 8-4.

In singles action, five Seminoles won in straight sets in the victory. Cloer, a freshman, was the first Seminole to win in singles with a 6-1, 6-1 victory over McGrory. Freshman Chip Webb also won convincingly at the no. 3 singles position, downing Murray 6-1, 6-2. Scarella's win over Davis at no. 4 singles (6-2, 6-3) clinched the victory for the Seminoles. At the no. 1 position, Luscan, ranked 49th nationally, capped his twelfth singles win of the season, as he defeated Lucas 6-3, 6-2. Bucht defeated Boward at the no. 4 position (7-6, 6-4) to wrap up his third straight singles win. Overcoming a close first set loss to N.C. State's Shane Sealy, Jarrod Owen fought back to win the second set, before taking the match in a third set tiebreaker.

The Seminoles will face No. 19 Wake Forest University on Saturday in their toughest conference match yet. The match is scheduled to begin at 2:00 p.m.

Seminoles Fall To Gators On The Road, 5-2

Senior Gustav Bucht leads Florida State in loss.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Florida State's men's tennis team traveled to the University of Florida campus on Saturday, March 23rd, in hopes of breaking a four-year losing streak to the Gators. This trip to Gainesville proved to be the toughest challenge of the year for the Seminoles as they fell to the 8th-ranked Gators by a score of 5-2.

The Seminoles performed well before being swept by the Gators in doubles play. Rodrigo Laub and Xavier Luscan looked tough before falling to the 37th-ranked Florida duo of Chris McDonald and Hamid Mirzadeh in No. 1 doubles, 8-6. At the No. 2 position, sophomores Alex Herrera and Jarrod Owen fell to Matt Behrmann and Troy Hahn of Florida by a score of 8-2. Florida State's Gustav Bucht and Romain Jurd, playing at the No. 3 position, fell to Ross Greenstein and Eleazar Magallan, 9-7.

Florida State took two games from the Gators in singles play. At the No. 6 position, Bucht defeated Trey Johnson of Florida by a score of 6-3, 7-6(7). Luscan, ranked 49th nationally, defeated Florida's Mirzadeh in No. 1 singles, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3. Florida State's Jurd performed well at the No. 2 position, but was defeated by Magallan, ranked 51st in the country, by a score of 6-7(5), 6-0, 3-0 (ret.). Freshman Mat Cloer fell at the No. 3 position to Florida's Olivier Levant, 6-1, 7-5. In No. 5 singles, Behrmann of Florida defeated Herrera by a score of 6-3, 1-6, 6-3. Florida State's Chip Webb, playing at the No. 4 position, fell to Hahn, 6-1, 0-6, 6-3.

The Seminoles return to action on Wednesday, March 27th, as they host the North Carolina State Wolfpack. The match is set to begin at 3:30 p.m. and will be held at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center of the campus of Florida State University.

Men's Tennis Defeats Clemson 6-1

The Seminoles move to 11-3 on the season.

CLEMSON, SC – The Florida State men's tennis team remains undefeated in conference play after a 6-1 victory over the 56th ranked Clemson Tigers. The Seminoles move to 11-3 on the season and 3-0 in the ACC. The Seminoles have already accumulated more wins this season than last season, as they finished with a 10-14 record. The 11-3 start is the Seminoles best since the 1995 season.

In doubles action, the Seminoles won the no. 1 and no 3 doubles matches to take the first point of the match. Romain Jurd and Gustav Bucht defeated Jamin Thompson at the no. 3 doubles position, 8-4. In a closer match, at the no. 1 position, Xavier Luscan and Rodrigo Laub defeated Marko Gojanovic and Goran Sterijovski 9-7.

In singles action, the Seminoles won five of six singles matches in the victory. At the no. 1 position, Luscan, ranked 41st nationally, defeated Jamin Thompson 6-2, 6-0. Jurd won at no. 2 singles, defeating Goran Sterijovski in straight sets (6-1, 6-3). Freshman Mat Cloer, sophomore Alex Herrera and Gustav Bucht also won in singles for the Seminoles.

The Seminoles return to action Friday, March 15th as they travel to Arizona State to take on the Sun Devils. That match is scheduled to begin at 1:30 PM MT.

Men's Tennis Opens ACC Play With Two Wins

The Seminoles' record moves to 10-3, their best start under coach Dwayne Hultquist.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team nabbed their first ACC wins over Virginia and Maryland this weekend. The Seminoles defeated the Cavaliers of Virginia 5-2 on Saturday in Charlottesville, Va. before traveling north to take on the Maryland Terrapins in College Park, Md. The Seminoles won all nine matches in a 7-0 rout of the Terps. The Seminoles' record moves to 10-3 on the season, their best start since the 1997 season. The Seminoles' all-time record against the Terrapins moves to 12-1.

In the Virginia match, the Seminoles swept the doubles matches to head into singles play with a one point advantage. At the no. 2 doubles position, sophomore Romain Jurd easily defeated Stephen Nolen 6-1, 6-1. Freshman Chip Webb also won convincingly at the no. 4 singles position over Jay Curtis, 6-2, 6-2. Sophomore Alex Herrera and senior Xavier Luscan also won singles points for the Seminoles.

On Sunday, the Seminoles did not lose a match in the victory. In doubles, the 37th ranked tandem of Rodrigo Laub and Luscan def Haris Causevic and Jonathan Murchison of Maryland, 8-2. Also in doubles play, Jurd and senior Gustav Bucht defeated Chris Chiu and Greg Chambers, 8-3. Herrera and freshman Mat Cloer also won their match in the Seminoles' sweep of doubles.

In singles play, freshman Chip Webb defeated Greg Chambers 6-1, 6-0 at the no. 4 singles position. Despite valiant efforts by the Terps at the no. 2 and no. 5 positions, as they forced the Seminoles into a third set in each of those matches, the Seminoles were able to pull out the singles sweep.

The Seminoles return to action Tuesday, March 12th against the Clemson Tigers in Clemson, S.C. at 2 p.m.

Men's Tennis Blanks The Nittany Lions, 7-0

Four Seminoles win in straight sets in the victory.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team won all nine matches Wednesday afternoon to win the match, 7-0. The Seminoles' record improves to 8-3 on the season, while the Penn State falls to 3-6. The Seminoles increase the all-time series record to 2-0 over the Nittany Lions.

The Seminoles took all three doubles matches to enter singles play with a one-point advantage. At no. 3 doubles, sophomore Romain Jurd and Gustav Bucht defeated Clint Keithley and Roddy Cantey of Penn State, 8-5. Also in an 8-5 victory, freshman Mat Cloer and sophomore Alex Herrera defeated Brad Nudell and Matt Frakes at the no. 2 doubles position. Finishing the doubles sweep, the ACC Indoor Champions senior Xavier Luscan and junior Rodrigo Laub defeated Todd Stecko and Jamie Gresh 8-6.

In singles play, Luscan easily defeated Gresh 6-1, 6-3 at the no. 1 position. After being down 3-0 in the first set, sophomore Romain Jurd won the next twelve games to take the no. 2 singles match over Stecko, 6-3, 6-0. Freshman Chip Webb extended his singles record to 8-2 with a win over Frakes 6-3, 6-2. Jarrod Owen also won in straight sets for the Seminoles.

Also in singles, sophomore Alex Herrera and Cloer overcame 7-5 losses in the second set to take their matches. At no. 3 singles, Cloer defeated Brad Nudell 6-2, 5-7, 6-1. Herrera defeated Roddy Cantey 7-5, 4-6, 6-4 at the no. 5 position.

The Seminoles open ACC action on Saturday March 9th when they travel to Charlottesville, Va. to take on the Virginia Cavaliers.

Seminole Fall To No. 24 Crimson Tide 5-2

Chip Webb and Xavier Luscan win the two Seminole points.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team lost a heartbreaker to the 24th ranked Crimson Tide of the University of Alabama Friday afternoon. The loss breaks the Seminoles six match home win streak. With the loss, the Seminoles' record falls to 7-2 on the season.

At no. 3 doubles, senior Xavier Luscan and freshman Mat Cloer took the first match of the afternoon for the Seminoles, giving them the advantage in doubles play. This proved not enough, however, as the Crimson Tide then took the no. 1 and no. 2 doubles matches to win the doubles point.

In singles action, Chip Webb, playing no. 4 singles, evened the score at one apiece with a win over Alabama's Nicolas-John Beuque, 6-1, 6-0. Alabama then took the lead in the match with a win at the no. 2 singles position, as no. 114 Chris Gostek defeated Romain Jurd, 6-4, 6-1. Soon after, the match moved to 2-2 when Luscan won at the no. 1 singles position. Luscan, ranked 53rd nationally, defeated no. 65 Maxim Belski of Alabama 6-3, 6-2. Alabama took the next three matches to win the contest 5-2.

The Seminoles return to action on March 2nd, when they travel to Tampa to take on the University of South Florida.

Seminoles Top The Hatters

Romain Jurd leads Florida State in win over Stetson.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Seminoles, ranked 37th nationally, hosted Stetson University on Tuesday, February 19th, at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center on the Florida State University campus. Florida State entered the contest with a perfect record at home on the season. The record was not broken. The Seminoles defeated the Hatters by a score of 7-0.

Xavier Luscan and Mat Cloer got the Seminoles off to a strong start in doubles action as they defeated Thomas Bross and Kenny Bohannon of Stetson at the No. 3 position, 8-0. In No. 2 doubles, Gustav Bucht and Romain Jurd defeated Christian Moe and Alexander Antonijevic by a score of 8-2. Florida State's Alex Herrera and Jarrod Owen battled back from a 5-2 deficit to even the score at 6-6, before falling to Piero Demichelli and Vittorio Fratta of Stetson, 8-6.

Jurd led the way for the Seminoles in singles play as he defeated Fratta at the No. 2 position, 6-0, 6-0. In No. 5 singles, Owen defeated Bross by a score of 6-1, 6-1. Freshman Chip Webb had a strong performance at the No. 4 position as he defeated Moe of Stetson, 6-2, 6-2. Luscan defeated Demichelli in No. 1 singles by a score of 6-4, 6-1. At the No. 6 position, it was senior Jeff Scarella who earned the point for Florida State as he defeated Eduardo Richelle de Jong of Stetson, 6-4, 7-5. Cloer earned a point for the Seminoles after Antonijevic of Stetson retired due to injury. Prior to the injury, Cloer led the match by a score of 6-2, 2-0.

"It is always good to win convincingly," said head coach Dwayne Hultquist. "The guys are getting in the habit of coming out ready to play hard everyday."

The Seminoles host the Alabama Crimson Tide on Friday, February 22nd, at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. Alabama enters the contest ranked 26th in the nation. The match is scheduled for 5:00 p.m.

Seminoles Blow Away the Hurricanes

Florida State improves to 5-0 on the season as they defeat Miami, 6-1

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Seminoles hosted Miami on Saturday, February 9th, at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center on the campus of Florida State University. Florida State entered the contest with a record of 4-0 and looked to remain undefeated on the season. The Seminoles defeated the 26th ranked Hurricanes by a score of 6-1 and improved their record to 5-0.

“Going into this match, I knew we could do it,” said sophomore Alex Herrera. “We played really hard today and just took care of business.”

Florida State got off to a slow start in doubles action. Xavier Luscan and Mat Cloer were down 2-6 in No. 3 doubles before coming back to defeat Todd Widom and Tarik El Bassiouni of Miami, 9-7. Sophomores Alex Herrera and Jarrod Owen took their match to a tiebreaker as they defeated Thomas Smid and Jose Lieberman by a score of 9-8 (4). In No. 2 doubles, Gustav Bucht and Romain Jurd fell to Andrew Golub and Andrew McDade of Miami, 8-6.

The Seminoles gained confidence after securing the first point of the match. In singles play, Herrera earned the second point for Florida State as he overpowered McDade at the No. 5 position, 6-2, 6-2. Minutes later, at the No. 3 position, freshman Cloer looked strong as he defeated Golub by a score of 6-1, 6-3. The match was clinched when Jurd defeated Smid of Miami in No. 2 singles, 6-2, 6-4. Owen earned the fifth point on the day for the Seminoles in No. 6 doubles as he defeated Max LePivert of Miami by a score of 6-4, 6-3. Freshman Chip Webb defeated Lieberman of Miami in a tough match, 6-4, 6-7 (7), (10-4). In Miami’s only win of the day, at No. 1 singles, Luscan fell to Widom, ranked 40th nationally, by a score of 6-4, 7-5.

“Earning the first point of the match in doubles was the turning point,” said head coach Dwayne Hultquist. “After that, we jumped out to a quick lead on five of six courts in singles. Once we jumped ahead, we never looked back.”

Florida State has the week off before traveling to Nashville, Tenn. to take on the Commodores of Vanderbilt on Saturday, February 16th. The next home match for the Seminoles is scheduled for Tuesday, February 19th, as they face Stetson. The match will begin at 3:00 p.m.

Seminoles Defeat UCF And Georgia Southern In Back-To-Back Matches

The Seminoles remain unbeaten and move to 4-0 on the season.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team took on the University of Central Florida and Georgia Southern University in back-to-back matches Saturday, February 2nd at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. The Seminoles defeated the Golden Knights of UCF, 5-2, in the 11:00 a.m. match and the Eagles of Georgia Southern, 6-1, in the 4:00 p.m. match.

In the early match, the Seminoles and the Knights split the first two doubles matches, leaving the decision of the doubles point up to the No. 1 doubles position. The tandem of Alex Herrera and Jarrod Owen finally won the point for the Seminoles, by defeating Gabriel Strangberg and Augusto Sanabria of UCF 9-8 (5).

In singles play, Xavier Luscan easily won the second point for the Seminoles by defeating Strangberg, 6-1, 6-2. Soon after, Mat Cloer won the third point for the Seminoles with a win (6-4, 6-2) over Antonio Sierra of UCF. Chip Webb and Jarrod Owen had wins in the third set solidifying the victory for the Seminoles.

In the second match of the day, the Seminoles took all three of the doubles matches to gain the first point. Later in singles play, Romain Jurd led the Seminoles with a 6-0, 6-0 victory over Darren Clark of Georgia Southern. Mat Cloer also had an impressive win, 6-1, 6-0, over Rohan Williams. Jeff Scarella, Chip Webb and Xavier Luscan also had wins in that match.

The Seminoles have the rest of the weekend off due to the cancellation of the Southern Methodist University match originally scheduled for tomorrow, February 3rd. The Seminoles next face Miami on Saturday, February 9th at 2 p.m. at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center.

Men's Tennis Set To Host UCF And Georgia Southern On Saturday

The back-to-back matches will begin at 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team, led by senior Xavier Luscan, will host UCF at 11 a.m. and Georgia Southern at 4 p.m. on Saturday, February 2nd. Florida State was ranked 56th in the latest ITA poll and neither of the Golden Knights nor the Eagles are ranked.

Florida State leads the all-time series against Georgia Southern 26-5. The Seminoles would like a repeat of last year's victory over the Eagles. The Seminoles have never lost a match to the Golden Knights in the seven times the two teams have met.

After the home stand against UCF and Georgia Southern on Saturday, the Seminoles will take on the Miami Hurricanes next Saturday, February 9th. The original time for that match was 1 p.m. but it has been moved to 2 p.m. The Seminoles will no longer be hosting Southern Methodist University Sunday, February 3rd as that match has been cancelled.

CHANGES TO MEN'S TENNIS SCHEDULE:

The match against Furman, which was rained out last Sunday, has been rescheduled. The Seminoles will now face the Paladins on February 17th at 2:30 in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Seminoles have also added a match to their schedule in place of the cancelled match against SMU. The Seminoles will now play Florida Atlantic University on Sunday, March 31st at 11 a.m. at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center.

Men's Tennis routs Tennessee Tech to win Seminole Team Tournament

The Seminoles remain unbeaten on the day after two 7-0 decisions.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State Men's tennis team hosted the Seminole Team Tournament Saturday at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. The Seminoles defeated Tennessee Tech 7-0 to remain unbeaten on the day. Earlier in the day, the Seminoles defeated Jacksonville in a 7-0 decision to advance to the championship game.

"I thought we did a lot of good things today. They were a good team," head coach Dwayne Hultquist said. "Tomorrow will be a very challenging game for us. Furman is ranked so it will be an exciting match."

Although several of the matches were close, the Seminoles pulled it out in the end. Jeff Scarella came from behind to beat Piotr Wawrzyniak in straight sets (6-2, 7-5). In another close match, freshman Chip Webb defeated Simon Tremblay 6-3, 4-6 (10-6).

In the first match against Jacksonville, it took only two matches for the Seminoles to win the doubles point. At the no.2 doubles position, senior Gustav Bucht and sophomore Romain Jurd defeated the Dolphin tandem of Rich Davoli and Kamal El Bouzkouri 8-1. A short time later, freshman Chip Webb and senior Jeff Scarella overcame Andres Rojas and Anthony Bugge at the no. 3 spot 8-2. This gave the Seminoles a point advantage heading into singles play. Then, one by one each of the Seminoles won their singles matches.

The second match-up of the day featured Florida A & M and Tennessee Tech. In a close match where every point mattered, the Golden Eagles eventually proved too much for the Rattlers, and took the match 4-3. Later, the Rattlers overcame Jacksonville in the consolation match, 4-3.

The Seminoles match against Furman, Sunday January 27th, will begin at 1 p.m. at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center.

Men's Tennis Team To Host Seminole Team Tournament This Saturday

FAMU, Tennessee Tech and Jacksonville will participate in the tournament.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State men's tennis team will be hosting the Seminole Team Tournament this Saturday, January 26th at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. The teams attending the tournament are Florida A & M, Tennessee Tech and Jacksonville.

The tournament will be played in a round robin format featuring the match-ups of the Seminoles against the Jacksonville Dolphins and the FAMU Rattlers taking on the Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles, both at 9 a.m. The winners of each of these will play in a championship match at 3 p.m.

This Seminole team features four seniors, two juniors, three sophomores and three freshman. Newcomer Mat Cloer will make his first home appearance at the Speicher Tennis Center. He made it to the fourth round of the ACC Indoors, his first action as a Seminole.

The Seminoles hope to continue the success they had last weekend at the ACC Indoor Championships, where junior Rodrigo Laub and senior Xavier Luscan won the doubles title.

The Seminoles will face their first dual-match opponent on Sunday January 27th at 1p.m., when the Furman Paladins travels to Tallahassee. Admission is free to the public.

Six Seminoles Advance To Second Round In The ACC Indoor Championships.
Three Seminoles advance to the third round in day one of competition Friday.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Ten members of the Florida State men's tennis team are competing in the ACC Indoor Championships this weekend hosted by Wake Forest University. Seven ACC schools have players competing in the tournament. Clemson and N.C. State are the only schools not participating.

After the first day of action, the Seminoles have three players still alive. Sophomore Romain Jurd and senior Bartosz Koldej have advanced to the third round of action, which will be played today. Jurd, who entered the tournament as the fourth seed will face Andy Metzler of North Carolina. Newcomer Mat Cloer advanced to the fourth round due to the withdrawal of no. 1 seed David Loewenthal of Wake Forest, whom Cloer would have faced this morning in the third round.

Three other Seminoles advanced past the first round, only to fall in the second round of play on Friday. Senior Xavier Luscan, who was the Seminoles highest seed (3rd) in the tournament, fell in the second round to unseeded Justin Kauffman of Wake Forest. Both freshman Chip Webb and senior Jeff Scarella advanced to the second round as well. Sophomore Jarrod Owen, senior Gustav Bucht, sophomore Alex Herrera and junior Rodrigo Laub all succumbed in the first round. These seven Seminoles will compete in the consolation round, which begins today.

Two Seminoles doubles teams have advanced to the quarterfinals of the tournament. The tandem of Mat Cloer and Bartosz Koldej will play the second seeded team, Geoff Boyd and Nicholas Munroe of North Carolina, this afternoon. The other Seminole team still alive is Rodrigo Laub and Xavier Luscan, who will face Jonathan Janda and Trystan Menaine also of North Carolina in the third round of play.

Men's And Women's Tennis Are Both Ranked In ITA Preseason Poll

The women's team placed 34th, while the men stand at 54th in the polls.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The Florida State Men's and Women's tennis teams were ranked in the preseason poll released by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Tuesday, January 8th. The women's team are ranked at 34th in the national poll. The men's team is begins the season ranked 54th.

"I am not terribly concerned with the preseason rankings," Women's Head Coach Lise Gregory said. "Things change so much during the season that the polls at the end of the season are much different than what the preseason polls suggested."

The women begin their season Tuesday, January 22, 2002, when they play host to cross-town rival FAMU. The Lady Rattlers are not ranked in the preseason poll.

The men's team will host the Seminole Team Tournament on Saturday, January 26, 2002 before beginning dual match play.

Men's Tennis Newcomer Matt Cloer To Start Classes On Monday

Cloer is one of the two players the Seminoles signed in November.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Florida State men's tennis signee, Matt Cloer, who signed his letter of intent in November, has enrolled at Florida State and will begin taking classes Monday, January 7, the first day of the Spring semester. The Seminoles look for Cloer to make a contribution to the team immediately. Head Coach Dwayne Hultquist hopes that Cloer will be cleared to play for the team before the ACC Indoor Championships later in the month.

Cloer finished the 2000 season ranked No. 3 in the nation in the USTA Boy's 16 and under division. Cloer, who grew up in North Carolina but now lives in Knoxville, Tenn., was also named the state high school champion of North Carolina. He qualified as a semifinalist in the National Hardcourts competition held in Kalamazoo. Cloer's father is a tennis pro at Knoxville Racquet Club and his grandfather is a graduate of Florida State. Cloer chose the Seminoles over Tennessee, Clemson, North Carolina, Kentucky and Wake Forest.

"Matt has been a top ranked national player for several years and will have an immediate impact here at Florida State," said head coach Dwayne Hultquist. "He is very quick around the court and hits a very clean ball. You can tell he really enjoys playing tennis."

FLORIDA STATE'S LUSCAN AND JURD TO PLAY IN ITA MEN'S ALL-AMERICAN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

STONE MOUNTAIN, Ga. – Florida State's Xavier Luscan and Romain Jurd will compete Tuesday, Oct. 9 in the first round of the Intercollegiate Tennis Association Men's All-American Championships at the Lincoln Tennis Center. The event is the first national singles and doubles championships of the 2001-02 season and is one of three national collegiate tennis championships of the season. With 360 players having competed in the singles draw, this is the largest collegiate tennis tournament in the nation.

Luscan, who is seeded 14th in the event, faces Zoltan Papp of Baylor in Tuesday first round. Luscan received an automatic bid into the tournament based on his ITA national ranking.

Luscan, a senior, was named to the All-ACC men's tennis team and named the Seminoles MVP in 2001. He enjoyed an outstanding record of 7-1 against ACC opponents at the No. 1 single position and was 12-9 in doubles action.

Jurd, a sophomore, advanced to the qualifying tournament that takes place Tuesday and Wednesday. He must win two matches to reach the main draw of the tournament that is scheduled for Oct. 11-14. Jurd faces third-seeded Mariano Pettigrosso of Arkansas Little-Rock in Tuesday's first round.

Jurd, a native of Paris, France, qualified for the tournament after competing in the 256-player pre-qualifying tournament this past weekend at the Lincoln Tennis Center. Due to two late withdrawals in the qualifying tournament, he was added to Tuesday's main draw. He won three of his four matches during pre-qualifying play.

Jurd, who was named to the ACC Academic honor roll as a freshman, was 4-4 while playing at the No. 2 singles position and 1-0 in the No. 2 doubles position.

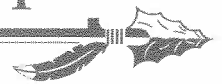

The Seminole men's tennis team finished the 2000-01 season ranked No. 59 in the nation and plays host to the Seminole Fall Classic, Sept. 19-21 at the Scott Speicher Tennis Center. Admission is free.

FSU Men's Tennis Opens Fall Season at Southern Collegiate Championship

The Seminoles will travel to Athens Georgia for their first action of the fall season.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—The Florida State Seminoles will open their fall season this weekend as they travel to Athens, Ga. to compete in the Southern Collegiate Championship being held at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex Sept. 21-24. Georgia will welcome over 200 student-athletes representing 43 schools throughout the southeast. The field will consist of four singles flights and three doubles flights.

As Dwayne Hultquist enters his third season as the head coach of the Florida State men's tennis team, his optimism for the program continues to grow. Florida State is entering the 2001-02 season ranked 59th in the country and fifth in the ACC. This season, the Seminoles are more motivated than ever to prove they have what it takes to succeed and make it to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2001-02 Seminoles are heading into a season filled with promise. Florida State returns four seniors, two juniors, three sophomores and welcomes two freshmen to the program this season. With an amazing pool of talent returning, the 2001-02 season looks to be one filled with excitement for the Seminoles.

Team leader, Xavier Luscan, enters his senior season with 51 career singles and doubles wins. He finished his junior campaign winning seven of eight matches against ACC opponents while being named to the 2001 All-ACC Men's tennis team.

Joining Luscan in a quest for the NCAA Tournament are seniors, Bartosz Koldej, Gustav Bucht and Jeff Scarella. Koldej made an immediate impact in doubles competition going on a four-match winning streak with teammate Xavier Luscan where the two took wins over ACC opponents Clemson, Maryland and UNC. Bucht opened up his first spring season with the Seminoles on a four-match win streak with teammate Alex Herrera while playing primarily at the No. 2 position in singles action. Four-year standout Scarella finished his junior season with a winning record of 14-12 going on an eight match winning streak during the spring season and winning four matches at the No. 5 position and three at No. 6.

January will set the stage for the Seminoles spring dual match season as they begin at the ACC Indoor Championships, and then return home to host the Seminole Team Tournament, before hosting Furman. The men's team will stay close to home this year playing 12 of 20 dual matches at the friendly confines of the Scott Speicher Tennis Center.
