METRO CONFERENCE RECAP

The Florida State men's and women's swimming and diving teams finished second to the South Carolina Gamecocks in the Metro Conference Championships last weekend in Columbia. The meet turned into a dual meet between USC and FSU as both squads dominated the finals during the course of the meet. The final results saw the men losing to USC by a 962.5-746 margin and the Lady Noles on the short end of a 887-824 score.

The men's squad entered the meet as decisive underdogs, but were able to give the Gamecocks all they could handle as they shattered six school records in the competition, four of them coming in the relay events. The most exciting event was the matchup in the 800 Free Relay, as both the Seminoles and Gamecocks whipped the crowd in a frenzy with a neck to neck race that saw USC winning 6:36:25 to 6:36:40. The Gamecocks needed a spectacular finish by their ace Dennis Meehan to rundown Scott Mundell of Florida State, to claim the victory.

Other highlights of the meet included junior Craig Zettle defending his 100 breaststroke title from last year. Teammate Mike Roder turned in a NCAA qualifying time in the prelims of that morning and third place finish at night. Senior Vance Tankersley broke the school record with a 1:38:51 clocking in the 200 free which netted him a second place finish. Junior Charlie Rose led the team with scoring 50 points and shattered the 200 back record with a time of 1:50:82. The divers held their own as Zach McIver and Matt Foster took fifth and sixth place finishes in the 1 Meter diving. Making their final appearances as seniors are Tri-captains, Vance Tankersley, John Kenny, and Matt Muller. Mike Hermann, Jay Wilkerson, and Graham Carothers also finish out their careers in the meet.

The women fell behind 36 points after the first day of competition and were never able to make up the difference as USC edged them 887-824. The Lady Noles set four school records in the meet and will send five swimmers to NCAA Championships in March.

Kathy Isackson led the way with two individual titles in the 100 and 200 Fly, and was a member of the NCAA Qualifying 400 Medley Relay. Freshman Kiki Steinberg accumulated two third place finishes in the 100 and 200 back events and a fourth in the 200 IM. Freshman Missy Connolly shattered two school records in the 1650 Free. The 1000 split of 9:54:85 and final time of 16:39:79. Divers Susan Pollack and Tracey Tuveson were able to outscore USC in both boards 54-33. Senior Tri-captains Kathy Turner and Jennifer Hazzard made their final appearances as Seminoles.

NOTES AND QUOTES

---The points accumulated by the squads were the most in Seminole history.

---The men's 100 breast event ended in controversy as Mark Smith of USC was initially disqualified in the finals of the event. Protests by the USC coaching staff ended in an overturn of the decision, forty minutes after the call.

A 17 point swing in momentum ended any hopes for the men winning the meet.

---The Virginia Tech swimming squad seated next to FSU during the meet were visibly cheering on the men's 800 Free relay in which FSU came up short to USC.

---The women's squad were without two of their top point scorers in Anne Speeder and Val Moore. Both are recuperating from season-ending injuries.

---Head Coach Terry Maul on the meet, "Both squads gave the most complete overall performance across the board in FSU history. Every single relay was able to pressure South Carolina, and it pushed their team to the limit. Florida State has turned the corner and should be considered a top twenty program."

NCAA Outlook

The Women's NCAA Championships will be held March 15-17 in Austin, Texas. The pre-season poll unanimously pick the Stanford Cardinals to defend their national title. The Texas Longhorns and Florida Gators are expected to give chase as they both return a large contingent of point scorers. Some of the top swimmers include Olympic gold-medalist Janet Evans of Stanford who already holds American records in the 1000 and 1650 free events. Texas is led by Olympian Andrea Hayes and defending NCAA Champion Leigh Ann Fetter in the sprint events. Florida is led by double backstroke titalist Kristen Linehan, and flyer Julie Gorman. The level of competition at this meet is so intense, that it is labled the "fastest meet in the world."

Florida State will send five swimmers to Austin, the only individual qualifier is Kathy Isackson who will try to break into the top eight in the butterfly events. The 400 Medley relay of KiKi Steinberg, Danielle VanDyke, Kathy Isackson, and Kirstan Harrinton have an excellent chance to place in the top twelve in the meet. The 400 Free relay is the same except Krissy Myers will replace KiKi Steinberg in the freestlye slot. The women will also compete in the sprint 200 free and medley relays.

Head coach Terry Maul comments on the relays, "The women's sprint 200 relays will be very competitive and could end up in the top ten. The 400 Medley will be the strongest, since they qualified by well over a second."

The NCAA Championships for men will be held in Indianapolis, Ind on March 22-24. The Texas Longhorns will be looking to repeat for a third straight title. The Stanford Cardinals are virtually even on paper, so the meet should be a toss-up.

The Florida State Seminoles will send six men to the meet, the individual qualifiers are breaststrokers Craig Zettle and Mike Roder. Roder will also compete in the 200 breststroke since he made the optional time standard. Florida State's main threat is their 800 Free Relay (Diater Holtz, Charlie Rose, Vance Tankersley, and Scott Mundell). This group has the potential to capture a top ten finish, and eagerly await a chance to avenge their loss to USC at the Conference meet. Terry Maul comments, "The 800 Free relay is the best ever at FSU, can defiitely challenge for a top ten finish."

Columbia, S.C.---The Florida State men's and women's swim teams were able to keep pace with their conference rivals, the Gamecocks of South Carolina, in the swim finals of the Metro Conference Championships. The women are behind 603-518, while the have fallen to a 627-435 margin.

The men started the afternoon with Mike Roder qualifying with a 55:89 time in the 100 breast. In the finals at night Craig Zettle defended his title from last year with a winning time of 55:91. The finals of this event finished with a controversial disqualification of a South Carolina swimmer that finished second to Zettle of FSU. The decision was later overturned forty minutes later, during the meet. Protests by the FSU staff was to no avail, as the second place points were awarded to South Carolina. The point of the decision was crucial since the men were coming back from last nights deficit. The night ended with an exciting 800 Free relay in which USC came back on the final leg to beat FSU by a tenth. Both squads qualified for NCAA Championships.

+0 Freestyle Relay which Florida State was edged by a couple tenths of a second. The men's time of 6:36:40 qualified them for NCAA Championships in March. The tandem of Dieter Holtz, Vance Tankersley, Charlie Rose, and Scott Mundell were the memb
