FLORIDA STATE SWIMMING & DIVING SWEEPS FAU

BOCA RATON, FL -- The Florida State swimming and diving teams kicked off their season today at Florida Atlantic University, with the Seminoles men and women both coming out on top. The FSU men (1-0) came out with a 166-71 victory, while the women (1-0) won 170-70.

Leading the way for the Lady Seminoles in a meet where they won every event was freshman Anne Blachford and junior Sarah Henderson. Blachford won the 50 free (24.19), the 100 free (52.58), and the 100 breast (1:04.49), while Henderson won the diving events, the one and three-meter boards.

The men were also led by a triple winner, sophomore Brendon Dedekind, and a double winner in the diving events, senior Corey Geraghty. Dedekind won the 100 free (45.57), the 200 free (1:42.45), and the 100 breast (58.28).

FSU will travel to Miami to take on the Hurricanes in a meet tomorrow morning at 9:30, in the first collegiate competition between the schools in any sport this year.
