FLORIDA STATE SWIMMING

TALLAHASSEE, FL -- The Florida State men and women's swimming and diving teams travel to Lincoln, NE, to compete in the Nike Sprint Classic on Friday, and in the Husker ShootOut on Saturday and Sunday, both of which will be held at the Bob Devaney Sports Center, located on the University of Nebraska campus. The Seminoles will be facing their toughest competition of the season thus far, as the teams competing include the host school Nebraska (#16 men, #11 women), #7 Arizona State (men only), Auburn (#2 men, #13 women), and Southern Methodist (#8 men, #2 women).

Friday's meet will be comprised of only sprint events, and is the only meet of its kind in the nation. The highlight of the meet will be the men's 50 free, where FSU's Brendon Dedekind, ranked 1st in the country, will be taking on a field that includes three other swimmers ranked in the top six. Saturday and Sunday's meet format will automatically have each team's fastest swimmer in the final heat, while their second fastest will be in the consolation heat, thus giving each team a shot at the title.

The men, 6-0 (2-0 in the ACC) and ranked 20th in the country, will be led by sophomores Dedekind and Stephen Parry. Dedekind is ranked 1st in the country in the 50 and 100 frees, while Parry is 1st in the 200 fly and 2nd in the 400 IM. In addition, the Seminoles have the top 200 and 400 free relays. The women, 4-1 (1-0 in the ACC), will be led by senior Helen Jepson and freshman Anne Blachford, who already had three NCAA consideration times, will be looking to improve on their national standings.
