FLORIDA STATE SWIMMING & DIVING VS HARVARD, VILLANOVA

Charlottesville, VA. -- The Florida State men's and women's swimming and diving teams competed against Harvard University and Villanova University today. The Seminole men and women both won their meet against Villanova, but both lost to Harvard. The meet was held on the University of Virginia campus.

The 17th ranked Seminole men moved their record to 9-1, as they defeated Villanova 133-89, but lost to 21st ranked Harvard 145-98. Leading the way for the men were sophomores Brendon Dedekind and Stephen Parry. Dedekind won the 50 free (20.24) and the 100 free (44.49) while Parry took the 100 fly in a NCAA consideration time of 48.91. Freshman divers took both events as Brent Burkman won the 1-meter and Ben Nuttall won the 3-meter.

The women beat Villanova 134-107, but fell to Harvard 131-110 to move to 5-4 for the year. The women's scorers were spread out this meet as four different Seminoles won an event. Freshman Anne Blachford won the 50 free (24.20), freshman Mayra Sabesky won the 1-meter diving, junior Cindy Marion won the 100 back (59.10) and senior team captain Lindy Dorminy won 100 breast.

This concludes the fall season for the Seminoles. After a break for exams, they will start their winter training before their next meet at home against LSU and Auburn on January 25.
