AUBURN WINS MEET IN FINAL EVENT—November 16, 1997

Auburn—Auburn claimed the AU Collegiate Invitational men's title in the final event of the evening while the women finished a distant second behind Clemson.

The Auburn men were a half point behind Florida going into the final event of the evening until the 400 relay team, Brock Newman, Greg Busse, Romain Barnier, and Brett Hawke won the event with a time of 2:59.25. In the relay, the Tigers edged Florida State who finished second with a time of 2:59.49.

"The 400 free relay is the premiere event in any meet," said anchor leg Hawke. "You have to win this event to be considered the best."

Auburn's women finished a strong second behind the defending ACC champions, Clemson, as the Tigers finished with 828.50 points. Katie Ryan, Annemieke McReynolds, Mimi Bowen and Katie Taylor won the 200 medley relay in 1:43.71 and McReynolds claimed the 200 breast with a time of 2:18.48.

"Individually, the women competed on a new level," said head coach David Marsh. "McReynolds, Rada Owen and Cathy Sursi had great performances throughout the weekend."

"Overall, we accomplished what we wanted to accomplish with this meet at this time of the year," continued Marsh on the entire team's performance. "It was good experience to end on a relay like that. Florida is surprising and is going to be a factor at NCAAs."

Next up, for Auburn will be the U.S. Open in Indianapolis, Dec. 4-6. The Tigers don't return home until Jan. 10 for an SEC dual against Florida.
