FSU DIVERS HEAD TO NCAA ZONALS

TALLAHASSEE, FL-- The Florida State diving squad travels to Athens, GA and University of Georgia for the NCAA Zone Regional Qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The qualifying meet runs from March 13-15.

All six divers qualified for the meet. Sarah Henderson, Marya Sabesky, and Kirsti Carrihill all qualified for the meet during the Auburn Invitational in November. For the men, Brent Burkman, Glenn Gonzales, and Ben Nuttall qualified during the Auburn Invitational as well. Each diver will compete on the 1-meter and 3-meter springboard. Nuttall will be competing on the 10-meter platform.

SEC AND MIAMI QUALIFY DIVERS FOR NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

ATHENS, GA.-----In the opening day of the Zone B Diving Championships the first eight automatic qualifiers to the NCAA Championships were selected from Southeastern Conference schools and the University of Miami.

Zone B is guaranteed nine spots for women and 12 spots for men at the NCAA Championships. Women competed in the 1-meter springboard Friday and qualified the top three divers for NAAs. The men began the weekend event with the 3-meter springboard, automatically qualifying five participants for NCAA Championships.

In the women's 1-meter springboard the top three places were filled by SEC women. Heather Lawrence of Florida placed first with a score of 432.20. Beth Leake of Kentucky and Michelle Davison of South Carolina finished second and third by scoring 412.50 and 409.90 points.

The men's 3-meter competition appeared to be a Miami Invitational. The top three spots were taken by Hurricanes B Gillooly (615.15), Rio Ramirez (605.35), and C Mantilla (574.55). The final two automatic qualifiers were Roy Shannon from Tennessee and Daren Guertin from Kentucky.

Georgia divers Trey Hart and Jud Campbell had good showings on the day, placing ninth and tenth, respectively. "Both of our guys finished in the top 10," said head diving coach Dan Laak, "as long as they finish in the top 12 tomorrow they should get in. Basically what we were shooting for was a top ten finish, especially for Trey. This is the best 3-meter meet Trey's had since being at Georgia."

Qualifiers from the Zone B Championships will compete in the NCAA Championships, March 19-21 at Minneapolis, Minn., for women and March 26-28 at Auburn, Ala. for the men.

Diving competition continues on Saturday with two events for both men and women. Springboard competition begins at 10:30 a.m., men's platform at 3:45 p.m. and women's platform at 6:15 p.m. Admission to all sessions in Georgia's Gabrielsen Natatorium is free.
