Gwen Torrence of Georgia was the only double individual winner with victories in the 100 and 200-meter dashes...Raymond Stewart of TCU and Kevin Young of UCLA were both individual winners and members of winning 400m and 1600m relays, respectively...Regina Cavanaugh of Rice won her third consecutive shot put crown with an NCAA meet record toss. She finishes her career with six NCAA titles...LSU's Lady Tigers became the first women's team in the history of the NCAA Track and Field championships to win both the indoor and outdoor titles in the same year...defending champions had a tough time with Lee McRae of Pittsburgh, Alisa Harvey of Tennessee, Lisa Breiding of Kentucky, Stephanie Herbst of Wisconsin, Keith Talley of Alabama, Rosalind Council of Auburn, Maria Usifo of Texas Southern, James Lott of Texas, Eric Metcalf of Texas, Toni Lutjens of UCLA, Kenny Harrison of Kansas State and Helena Uusitalo of Washington all failing in their attempts to repeat...Floyd Heard of Texas A&M, Lillie Leatherwood-King of Alabama, Regina Cavaganaugh of Rice, Dag Wennlund of Texas, and Jolanda Jones of Houston were able to duplicate their 1986 first-place finishes...LSU's Mikael Olander broke his own world, collegiate, and NCAA meet javelin record in the decathlon on two successive throws, improving the record to 247-0 on his second throw and moments later on his third and final throw, getting off a 247-11 heave. He came back the day after the decathlon competition and placed fifth, had he been able to duplicate the decathlon throwing series he would have finished second behind Texas' Wenlund in the open competition...Fresno State vaulter Doug Fraley won both the indoor and outdoor titles this year...Sheila Echols of LSU moved in as the No. 4 All-Time U.S. performer in the long jump with her leap of 22-9 1/4 (6.94m). The meet marked her outdoor debut after fouling three times in the Bruce Jenner meet in April and spending most of the season nursing a leg injury...California's Hudson, runner-up to the other Sheila in the long jump, produced the world best, collegiate, American and NCAA meet records in the triple jump with her leap of 45-2 1/2 (13.78m) on the same runway that Echols established the NCAA meet record in the long jump with the exception that Hudson's record leap was into the north pit and Echols into the south on runway 1...

STADIUM RECORD

RACE IN REVIEW: Lohr opened a lead that reached 60 meters during the first 3,200 meters (eight laps). She eventually was caught by the pack and Shea took the lead for just over 400 meters. Murray grabbed the lead shortly after the 4,000-meter mark. A pack of three runners (Murray, Hering and Blakeslee) pulled away from the rest of the runners. Murray began to open a substantial margin at 6,800 meters with a 78.9 lap at that time. Blakeslee began to secure second at 7,000. Murray stretched her lead until it was nearly 150 meters at the finish.

Haley was the closest to Reynolds at that point, but couldn't hold off a charging Everett at the finish. Valmon appeared to be in contention, but lack a strong finish.

STADIUM RECORD

RACE IN REVIEW: Smith was the first leader, but Schweitzer didn't wait long to take control of the race. Near the end of three laps, she moved in front and had a 30-meter advantage during the fifth circuit. A pack of five runners (Hand, Mosqueda, Graves, Mullen and Goodman) stayed together in the battle for second. Goodman was the first to drop away. Schweitzer was never seriously challenged, although Hand made a strong rally in the last 300 meters to take second and finish 15 meters back.

MEET : STADIUM RECORD

(hand-timed)

RACE IN REVIEW: Chalmers was the first to establish a clear advantage, and she was followed by Favor and Harvey. Favor seized the lead with 450 meters remaining and took Harvey with her. The tandem battled the rest of the way. Harvey appeared on the verge of taking the lead, but Favor never relented, winning despite tumbling from exhaustion in her last stride.
