FSU MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TRACK TEAMS COMPETE AT CYCLONE CLASSIC

AMES, IA--The Florida State men's and women's track teams completed the first day of competition at the Cyclone Classic in Ames, IA. The Classic, a event hosted by Iowa State University, held competition all day Saturday.

The men's team was led by freshman Jason Lawrence. Lawrence, a native of Cocoa, FL, finished fourth in the hammer throw with a distance of 62-1.05 feet. Senior Zyris Hill and junior Darious Jones represented FSU in the long jump. Hill finished fourth in the event with a distance of 24-4.25 feet and Jones placed 20th at 22-4.25.

The women's team was led by a pair of long jumpers. Zuzette Mullings and Chinette Johnson finished fifth and seventh in the event, respectively. Mullings, a junior from Elicott City, MO, jumped a distance of 19-4.25 and Johnson jumped 19-1.5 feet. Makiba Batten competed in the women's weight throw, placing 20th with a distance of 41-10.5 feet.

The remainder of the scores were not available and will be released on Sunday afternoon.

FLORIDA STATE TRACK & FIELD

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S INDOOR UPDATE

FEBRUARY 9, 1999

Two more Florida State track & field athletes recorded NCAA provisional qualifying marks last weekend at the Iowa State Classic in Ames, Iowa. Jason Dean established a new collegiate best in the pole vault while Samantha George ran the fastest 400m time in the ACC. Dean, a sophomore from Clearwater, went 17-2.75 in the vault to finish fourth. George clocked in at 54.49 in the 400m and ran on the 4x400m relay with Ayana Townsend, Laura Gerber and Fiona Norwood that also qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships. The junior is also No. 2 in the conference in the 800m at 2:11.11.

Jody Lawrence, who is the conference leader in the weight throw, provisionally in the event as he broke his old school record with a toss of 63-8.75 at the ACC/SEC Challenge two weeks ago.

Other athletes who rank among the conference's top three:

MEN

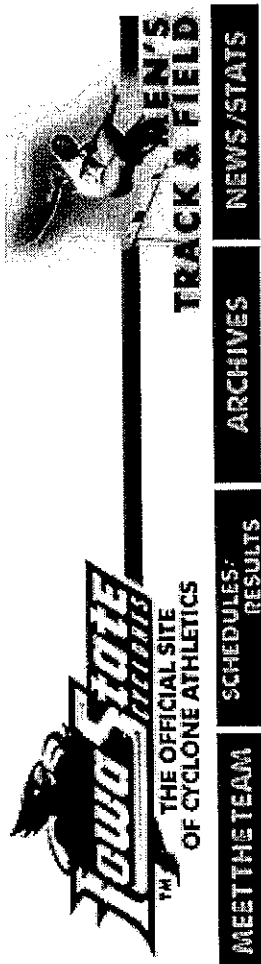

- Dean #1 in the pole vault and Lawrence #1 in the weight throw (above)
- Al Young, #3 in the 55m (6.47)
- Iain Harnden, #3 in the 55m hurdles (7.54)
- Darius Jones, #2 in the high jump (6-11)
- Mario Lowe, #3 in the triple jump (50-0.75)

WOMEN

- George, #1 in the 400m and #2 in the 800m (above)
- Tonya Carter, #1 in the 55m (6.91), #3 in the 60m (7.47)
- Carter, #2 in the 200m (24.05 - NCAA provisional mark)
- Laura Gerber, #1 in the 800m (2:09.17)
- Shannon Steele, #3 in the high jump (5-7.75)

The men's and women's teams are currently preparing for the ACC Indoor Championships, which will be held February 19-20 in Blacksburg, VA. At last year's ACC Indoors both teams placed fourth in the overall standings.

Men's Indoor Track Performs Well in Iowa State Classic

Jamie Beyer places fourth in the shot put.

February 6, 1999

AMES, Iowa - Iowa State's Jamie Beyer placed fourth in the shot put with a throw of 59-11 3/4. Cyclone freshman Justin Hyde finished fifth in the 60-meter hurdles with a 8.13 clocking. ISU's Andy Long was sixth in 8.15. Five men's meet records fell, including Chad Harting 18-6 1/2 effort to win the pole vault. Harting, competing for Bell Athletics, broke the mark of 18-4 1/2 by Scott Shaffer in 1992. Other meet records were set by Rice's Rashad Stafford in the 60-meter hurdles (7.89), SMU's Roman Oravec in the 800-meters (1:45.97), Stanford's Michael Stember in the mile (3:58.67) and Arkansas's Michael Power in the 3,000-meter run (7:50.05). The top eight finishers in the 3,000 ran under the NCAA Championship automatic qualifying time of 7:58.20.
