FLORIDA STATE TRACK AND FIELD TEAMS FINISH IN TOP HALF OF THE CONFERENCE AT THE ACC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS
Joe Allen and Tonya Carter each win two ACC crowns and Carter breaks the ACC 60m dash record

BLACKSBURG, VA. -- The Florida State track and field team came away with a second-place finish and a fourth-place finish at the ACC Indoor Championships this weekend. The women's team finished in second place behind North Carolina which wrapped up their eighth consecutive championship and the men's team finished in fourth place behind N.C. State, North Carolina and Clemson.

The FSU women's team walked away with five ACC Championships. Senior Tonya Carter paced the Lady Noles with two ACC crowns. Carter won both the 60m dash and the 200m dash. In the 60m, Carter set a new ACC record of 7.16. The previous mark was 7.26 set last year by Georgia Tech's Andria King. Junior Teresa Bundy finished in third in the 60m dash to claim All-ACC honors. Senior Samantha George won the 400m dash with an NCAA automatic qualifying time of 53.01 and fellow senior LaKeisha Mose captured the weight throw championship with a toss of 58'8". On Friday, FSU's Makiba Batten won the shot put title with a score of 48'4 1/2".

The FSU men's team captured three ACC Championships. Junior Joe Allen took home both the long jump and triple jump crowns with provisional marks in both events. Sophomore Christian Bland earned an NCAA provisional qualification and the ACC title in the high jump with a clearance of 7'1". FSU sophomore Mario Lowe placed third in the triple jump to earn All-ACC honors and the men's 4x400m relay team came in second place.

The Seminoles will return to action on March 3rd at the USATF Indoor Championships in Atlanta, Georgia.

CLEMSON WINS ACC MEN'S INDOOR TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP

Tigers' Crawford sets American collegiate record with 20.43 in the 200m, the fastest time in the world this year
February 19, 2000

BLACKSBURG, VA—Clemson won the 2000 ACC Men's Indoor Track and Field Championship on Saturday in Blacksburg, VA. The Tigers scored 168 points for the victory, the second-highest point total in history, and Clemson's highest point total ever at the event. North Carolina finished second with 89 points, and NC State was third with a score of 86.

Senior Shawn Crawford led the Tigers, claiming first place in the 60m and the 200m. His time in the 200m, 20.43, set a new American collegiate record, plus a Clemson and ACC record and is the fastest time in the world this year. The previous ACC and American collegiate record of 20.56 was set by Milton Campbell of North Carolina in 1998. Crawford broke his previous best by .19 at the meet. In the 60m, Crawford posted an automatic qualifying time of 6.62.

Clemson took three of the top four spots in the 60m hurdles, claiming 24 points overall in the event. Tiger junior Sultan Tucker won the event in 7.79, tying the ACC record for the event. Tiger senior Charles Allen was second with a provisional time of 7.85, and Florida State senior Iain Hamden placed third in 7.94.

The Tigers scored 26 points in the 60m dash. Crawford won the event, and freshman David Collins earned All-ACC honors after placing second with a provisional time of 6.70. Wake Forest junior John Stone placed third with a time of 6.80. Clemson scored 25 points in the 200m. Crawford won the event, followed by Wake Forest junior John Stone with a provisional time of 21.23. Tiger sophomore Ato Modibo placed third with a time of 21.38.

NC State senior Tyrone Dozier claimed the ACC Championship in the 400m, winning the event with an automatic qualifying time of 46.15. Tiger Modibo was second with a provisional time of 46.39, and Georgia Tech senior Michael Johnson placed third with a provisional time of 46.74.

Clemson sophomore Fred Sharpe won the 800m in 1:51.79, and Tar Heel junior Jeff Ellis placed second with a time of 1:52.33. Tiger sophomore Mike Connelly was third after finishing the event in 1:52.42.

In the mile run, Georgia Tech freshman Brendon Mahoney placed first with a time of 4:09.25, followed by Wake Forest sophomore Chris Estwanik in second with a time of 4:09.48. Duke's Bill Spierdowis, also a sophomore, was third with a time of 4:10.98.

NC State took the top three positions in the 3,000m. Senior Chan Pons, who won the 5,000m on Friday, won the event in 8:15.48, while junior Chris Dugan placed second with a time of 8:21.69. Senior Abdul Alzindani was third with a time of 8:21.90.

The Georgia Tech 4x400m relay team of Michael Johnson, Sharif Azim, Tosin Tomori and Bryan Swann won the championship with a time of 3:11.41. Florida State's team of Hamden, Danny Smith, Antonio Martin and Michael Jennings finished second, recording a time of 3:11.63.

Sophomore Christian Bland of Florida State took the ACC Championship in the high jump with a provisional mark of 7'1". Clemson sophomore Doug Ameigh was second after clearing the same mark on a later jump. Freshman Keith Schuler of Georgia Tech placed third with a mark of 6'11 3/4".

Sophomore Brent Callaway of North Carolina won the pole vault with a mark of 16'9 1/2", and Duke junior Seth Benson placed second after clearing the same height on a later jump. Seminole freshman Jeff Atkinson was third with a vault of 16'3 1/2".

Freshman Isaiah Oglesby of NC State led the weight throw competition with an NCAA provisional mark of 64'10 3/4", while sophomore Sal Gigante of North Carolina was second with a throw of 61' 1/4". Sophomore Cliff Neal of Wake Forest placed third at 57'2 1/4".

Florida State junior Joe Allen took first in the triple jump with a provisional mark of 51'8 1/2", and senior Bryan Williams of Clemson was second with a mark of 51'6 1/2". Seminole sophomore Mario Lowe was third with a jump of 51'2 1/4".

The top three individuals in each event earn All-ACC honors, and the top team in each relay event is awarded all-conference honors. Highlights from the meet can be seen on Fox SportSouth on Monday, February 28, at 7 p.m.

NORTH CAROLINA LEADS ACC MEN'S INDOOR TRACK AND FIELD CHAMPIONSHIP AFTER FIRST DAY

Tar Heels earn third-straight shot put title

February 18, 2000

BLACKSBURG, VA—The North Carolina men's indoor track and field team leads the 2000 ACC Championship Meet with 31 points after Friday's competition in Blacksburg, VA. Clemson is in second place with 25 points, while NC State currently is in third with 24 points. The top three athletes in each individual event earn All ACC honors, while the winning team in each relay event earns All-ACC accolades.

Sophomore Ian Douglas gave the Tar Heels their third-straight ACC Championship in the shot put, winning the event with a throw of 58'3". North Carolina's Allen Bradd won the event the last two seasons. UNC sophomore Sal Gigante placed second with a throw of 55'5 1/2", and Clemson sophomore Keith Rzewuski was third with a mark of 52'8 3/4".

The Duke distance medley relay team of Mike McKeever, James Vasak, Kyle Leonard and Terry Brennan set the ACC record with a time of 9:53.81, breaking the record of 9:54.10 set in 1998 by NC State. The Clemson team of Mike Connelly, Otto Spain, Fred Sharpe and Ryan Demers placed second with a time of 9:57.97.

Florida State junior Joe Allen won the long jump with an NCAA provisional qualifying mark of 25'1 1/4", while Clemson sophomore Kai Maull was second with a provisional mark of 24'9 3/4". Georgia Tech junior Clayton Porter placed third with a jump of 24'7 3/4".

Senior Chan Pons of NC State won the 5,000m with an NCAA provisional qualifying mark of 14:15.74. Junior Stephan Pro of Wake Forest was second with a time of 14:33.80, and Duke senior Charlie Kelly placed third after recording a time of 14:34.23.

In Friday's trials, Clemson senior Shawn Crawford set an ACC record with an NCAA automatic qualifying time of 20.56 in the 60m dash. He set the previous record of 20.61 in 1998. Crawford also posted the top qualifying time in the 200m dash, an automatic qualifying time of 20.65. Crawford, who holds the fastest time in the world this year in the event (20.62), will seek his second-straight 200m indoor championship on Saturday.

Tiger junior Sultan Tucker ran the top qualifying time in the 60m hurdles at 7.92. Georgia Tech senior Michael Johnson ran 47.19 in the 400m for the top spot in the trials, and Clemson sophomore Ryan Demers posted the top qualifying time in the mile, finishing the event in 4:08.39. Freshman Maarten van den Heuvel of Florida State qualified first in the 800m, posting a time of 1:51.74.

Saturday's events begin at 10 a.m. with the men's weight throw competition. Running events begin at 1 p.m. with the Mile. The final event, the 4x400m, is set to begin at 4:15 p.m.
