For Immediate Release
March 23, 2001

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – After three days of events, the men's and women's track and field teams have posted several impressive marks including many first-place finishes against world-renowned competition. The meet has featured top athletes from conferences such as the Big Ten and the ACC, as well as former Olympians competing on various track clubs.

Today's competition featured some of FSU's top athletes. Kim Jones started the day with a fifth-place finish in the 100m dash with a time of 12.25. Jones then went on to run the 110m hurdles, and took the title in that event with a time of 13.89. Ayana Townsend was the next closest FSU finisher in the 100m hurdles, finishing 12th with a time of 14.90. The women's squad also tallied a second-place finish in the 4x200m relay, crossing the line in 1:36.64, finishing just behind the Big Dog Track Club. The BDTC featured former FSU Olympic athletes Samantha George and Kim Batten. Makiba Batten managed to grab two first-place finishes of her own, as the junior from Detroit, Mich., tossed the discus 166-09 for the second division title as well as claiming the second division title in the shot put. Batten tossed the shot 46-08.25, while teammate Nicole Scott was close behind with a mark of 43-07.00, finishing third.

The most impressive finish of the day for the Lady Seminoles came from junior-Brooke Bastien. The transfer from Jacksonville University made her mark in the FSU record books, collecting a new Mike Long Track record in the 3,000m steeplechase. Bastien posted a time of 11:00.67 for the win, also notching an NCAA provisional qualifying mark. Close behind Bastien was teammate Beth Lukens who turned in a time of 11:36.79 for an eighth-place finish.

The women's squad saw continued success in the pole vault pit, as the duo of Lindsay Osborn and Megan Robbins continued to shine. Robbins claimed the pole vault title in the upper division competition, clearing the bar at 12-05.50 for a season-best mark. Osborn matched the mark, tying Robbins for first place in the event. Close behind was Nikki Allen, competing unattached. Allen was a member of last year's pole vault squad. Robbins, Allen and Osborn also went 1-2-3 in the lower division vault competition.

On the track, Florida State excelled in the 400m dash. Freshmen Jordana Whittington and Tamara Campbell finished second and third, respectively in the 400m dash. Whittington crossed the line in 57.77, while Campbell finished in 57.91.

The Lady Seminoles wrapped up the competition with a first-place finish in the triple jump. Junior Taressa Davis finished first in the second division triple jump going 38-03.50.

On the men's side, Danyne Brown, Byron Taylor and Matt Mason finished third, sixth and seventh, respectively, as the trio tried to chase down former teammate Iain Harnden, who won the 110m high hurdles. Brown was the closest finisher, crossing the line in third place with a time of 14.43. Taylor and Mason finished in 14.65 and 14.69, respectively.

The 2001 FSU Relays will conclude Saturday afternoon with the traditional running of the 4x400m relay, at 4:05 p.m. Events will begin with the long jump tomorrow at 10:00 a.m.

FLORIDA STATE CONCLUDES 2001 FSU RELAYS

For Immediate Release
March 24, 2001

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – After four days of grueling competition which included two divisions of over 2,000 total athletes from 56 different track and field clubs and colleges, the Florida State Seminoles ended the weekend with several top marks, as well as a number of provisional marks.

The story of the day came in the high jump, where All-American Shawn Brown claimed the title. Brown went 7-02.50 in the high jump to provisionally qualify for the NCAA Championships, but he didn't claim the title without a fight. Brown won the event in a jump off, against Cory Crosby of Albany State, as well as Stephan Ketter and Jimmy Baxter, both from Brown's previous University, South Florida. Crosby finished second, clearing the bar at 7-02.50 but missed the title in the jump off. Ketter and Baxter also cleared 7-02.50, both tying for third.

Also on the men's side, Maarten van den Heuvel grabbed the top finish in the top division 800m, crossing the line in 1:50.81. Finishing right behind his teammate was Wade Brett, who finished in 1:50.84, a personal best for the junior from Port Lavaca, Texas. Byron Taylor added a first-place finish of his own, turning in a personal record performance in the 400m intermediate hurdles, crossing the line in 51.18.

On the women's side the Lady Seminoles ended the day with five of the top division titles. Keya Crutchfield took the 200m title, running a 24.02 for the win while the 4x100m- and 4x400m-relay teams finished first. Makiba Batten continued her dominance in the field events, as the junior Detroit, Mich., claimed her fourth title in two days. Batten finished on top in the lower division discus and shot in yesterday's competition, before grabbing the title in the same events in the upper division today. Batten tossed discus 166-01 for a NCAA provisional mark, while she went 48-06.00 in the shot put. Nicole Scott finished close behind Batten in the upper division shot put, finishing sixth with a mark of 42-07.00.

Ending the afternoon was an entertaining men's 4x400m relay. Florida State's 'A' team crossed the finish line first in 3:09.91, defeating the World Track Club, among other top competitors. The WTC finished in 3:10.41, as FSU volunteer assistant coach and former Olympic athlete Ken Harnden paced the third leg for the runner-up track club.

Florida State track and field will be back in action again next weekend, as they travel to Gainesville, Fla., for the 2001 Florida Relays. The Relays begin March 29 and are scheduled to end March 31. The Seminoles will also send select runners to the Raleigh Relays, hosted by North Carolina State University, the same weekend.
