FSU Men's Track & Field In First At The ACC Indoor Championships
The Seminoles garner three individual conference titles after Day 1 of competition.

CHAPEL HILL, NC -- After the first day of the competition at the ACC Indoor Championships in Chapel Hill, NC, the Florida State men's track and field team are in first place, while the women sit third only three and a half points behind meet leader Georgia Tech.

The men's team finished Day 1 of competition with a 16 point advantage over tournament host North Carolina through four events scored. The Tribe collected two ACC individual titles on the men's side with freshman Garrett Johnson taking the men's shot put, while junior Joep Tigchelaar captured the 5000m run title. In the men's shot put, Florida State dominated the event finishing with four athletes in the top eight. Johnson led the Seminoles with a personal best throw of 60' 11.5" (18.58m), which was good for an NCAA provisional qualifying mark. Junior Dorian Scott finished second with a mark of 59' 4.75" (18.10m) followed by Dan Royal in seventh at 50' 8.75" (15.46m) and Andrew Diakos in eighth with a personal best throw of 47' 11.25" (14.61m).

In the men's 5000m run, Joep Tigchelaar was crowned ACC champion after running an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 14:15.06, almost five seconds faster than his closest competitor. The men's distance medley relay team of Robert Cooper, David Johnson, Sean Campbell, and Giscard Titus gained valuable points for the Seminoles as they placed third in a time of 10:01.04. Senior Kolby Jones jumped to season best mark of 24' 2.25" (7.37m) in the men's long jump competition en route to a second place finish for the Tribe.

In women's action, sophomore Lacy Janson won her second consecutive ACC championship in the women's pole vault competition in record fashion on Friday afternoon. She jumped to a career best mark of 14' 0" (4.27m) and in the process broke the ACC Indoor Championship record, previously held by Janson when she jumped 4.15m last year. The Tribe took spots four through six in the women's shot put competition, led by freshman Makiba Batten, who threw for a personal best mark of 48' 4" (14.73m) good for a fourth place finish. She was followed by Cerenity Young in fifth (47' 9.25") and Amanda Kinney in sixth (47' 6.5"). Senior Kim Jones accumulated a fourth place finish in the long jump competition after she posted a mark of 19' 9" (6.02m). In the final field competition for the women, Florida State's Marla Jackson compiled a fifth place finish in the women's high jump establishing a mark of 5' 5.75" (1.67m). The women concluded their scoring in the 5000m run as Vicky Gill ran to an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 16:37.70, good for fourth place.

In preliminary action, the Seminoles were led by sophomore Craphonso Thorpe who qualified for both the 60m and 200m dash. Brian Dizingia will join Thorpe in the 200m dash, while Cedrick Robinson and Danye Brown qualified for a spot in the 400m dash and 60m hurdles, respectively. In the mile run, the Tribe will look for senior Maarten van den Heuvel and junior Giscard Titus to score valuable team points in tomorrow's event final.

On the women's side, preliminary action concluded with five ladies looking to garner an individual conference championship and pick-up team points in the process. Tamara Campbell finished in first place overall in the 400m dash establishing a personal best time of 55.06. Senior Kim Jones will compete in two finals on Saturday as she earned qualifying spots in the 60m hurdles and 60m dash. Freshman LaKendra McColum will join Jones in the 60m hurdles final after she ran to a personal best time of 8.57 in the preliminary event. Natalie Hughes made her way into the women's mile run final on Saturday and will look to top her second place finish from a year ago.

Florida State is back in action for the final day of the ACC Indoor Championships on Saturday, February 22nd at 10 am. Men's Track & Field Team Captures ACC Indoor Championship
Florida State's women's team finishes in third place.

CHAPEL HILL, NC – The Florida State men's track and field team captured their second ACC Indoor Championship at the Dick Taylor Track in Chapel Hill, NC on Saturday afternoon. The Seminoles entered the final day of competition with a 16 point lead over tournament host North Carolina, an advantage they would not relinquish as they finished a solid 24 points ahead of second place Clemson. On the women's side, the Lady Seminoles competed to a third place finish, two spots better then at last year's Indoor Championships. The Seminoles also garnered four more individual conference championships, as well as two team championships on Saturday; bringing their overall total to nine ACC Championships on the weekend.

For the men, senior Jeff Atkinson defended his title in the pole vault competition winning the event with a mark of 17' 0.75" (5.20m), a season best. Also in the pole vault, senior Jared Sweetser picked up valuable points for the Seminoles finishing in a tie for fourth place after vaulting to a height of 15' 9.75" (4.82m).

Freshman Rafeeq Curry continued his dominance in the men's triple jump competition as he won his first ACC title establishing an NCAA provisional mark of 52' 0" (15.85m), while fellow teammate Willie Johnson finished in eighth (48' 10", 14.88m) for the Seminoles.

Florida State accumulated its third individual championship when senior Maarten van den Heuvel ran to a first place finish in the one-mile run with a season best time of 4:08.75, followed by an eighth place finish by junior Giscard Titus.

In other men's action, the Seminoles dominated the weight throw competition taking four of eight spots. The top finisher for the Tribe was senior Josh Bowling, who placed third after establishing a season best mark of 57' 9" (17.60m). Junior's Marqus Johnson, Dan Royal, and Dorian Scott rounded out spots five through seven in the men's weight throw.

In the men's sprint events, senior Danyne Brown finished in second with a time of 8.11 in the 60m hurdles. Sophomore Craphonso Thorpe saw action in two final events for the Seminoles picking up a fourth place finish in the 60m dash and sixth place in the 200m dash. Junior Brian Dizingia was the top finisher for the Garnet and Gold in the 200m dash with a fifth place mark in a time of 22.01.

In women's action, senior Kim Jones retained her title in the 60m hurdles after running to an NCAA provisional qualifying mark and a personal best time of 8.21. She also went on to place seventh in the 60m dash for the Seminoles.

Junior Tamara Campbell placed second in the 400m dash finishing in a time of 54.88, while sophomore Natalie Hughes ran to a third place finish in the one-mile run for Florida State.

The Garnet and Gold finished out the tournament garnering two team titles in the men and women's 4x400 relay. The men's team of freshmen Derrick Baker and Rafeeq Curry, junior Sean Campbell and senior Cedrick Robinson ran to a first place finish establishing a time of 3:14.30. Freshmen Evelyne-Cynthia Niako, Marla Jackson, and Kim Adams, and junior Tamara Campbell took home the women's title running in a time of 3:42.91.
