Day 1 Of Competition At The FSU Relays

Halfway through the heptathlon event, freshman Deanna Lane sits in third place.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – The FSU Relays got underway on Wednesday afternoon completing half of the decathlon and heptathlon events at Mike Long Track. The Seminoles' Deanna Lane currently sits third in the heptathlon with 3,043 points, while fellow teammate Chelsea Downs is sixth with 2,594 points. In the decathlon, senior Gary Visser is eighth with a point total of 3,399.

South Florida's Alexis McGaffagan leads the heptathlon after day one of competition with 3,194 points, while Liberty University's Jon DeBogory leads the decathlon with 3,729 points.

The FSU Relays continue on Thursday, March 20th with the completion of the heptathlon and decathlon events, as well as a full schedule of track and field events starting at 10:00am.

For complete results from Day 2 at the FSU Relays, stay tuned to seminoles.com, the official athletic website of the Florida State Seminoles.

Seminoles Shine In Sprint And Relay Events At FSU Relays
The women's distance relay team sets a new school record.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – With the rain clouds no where in sight and the sun shining brightly upon the newly renovated Mike Long Track, a good crowd was on hand for Day Three of competition at the FSU Relays to cheer on the 46 team field. In one of the most beautiful days that the city of Tallahassee has seen in awhile, the Florida State track and field team proved strong in the sprint and relay events. FSU's 'Kim' duo of Jones and Walker led the Seminoles with two-first place and two-second place finishes on the day.

Senior Kim Jones had a solid performance winning the 100m hurdles with a seasonal best time of 13.46, good for an NCAA regional qualifying mark. In the closest finish of the day, sophomore Kim Walker edged out Jones by one, one-hundredth of a second to take the 200m dash in a time of 24.52. The Seminoles' Marla Jackson finished fourth in the 200m at 24.82, while Kim Adams established a time of 25.45, good for seventh place. Walker was also the top performer for the Seminoles in the women's 100m dash, placing second in a time of 12.04.

In the women's 400m dash, Evelyne Niako and Shauna Quinn finished first and third respectively. Niako's time of 54.47 was a personal best and good for an NCAA regional qualifying mark.

Sophomore Suzanne Shephard won the 3000m steeplechase for the Garnet and Gold, in her first attempt of this event in 2003. She finished the race in a time 12:13.40, almost ten seconds faster then her closest competitor.

In the relay competition, the men's 4x400 team of David Johnson, Cedrick Robinson, Rafeeq Curry and Sean Campbell won the event in a time of 3:07.23, establishing an NCAA regional qualifying mark. The women's 4x400 relay team featuring Shauna Quinn, LaKendra McColum, Aneva Robinson and Evelyne Niako placed fourth with a time of 3:47.09.

The women's distance relay team of Natalie Hughes, Tamara Campbell, Laura Gerber and Vicky Gill won the gold championship, setting a school record in a time of 11:17.50. The Garnet and Gold also placed fourth with Emily Wehr, Sydney Mondragon, Rachel Marsh and Mari Leitner with a mark of 12:53.21.

"The distance medley was something we really wanted to run," said coach Bob Braman. "We wanted to establish a time for a national ranking. We will definitely run it again at the Penn Relays and try to break the 11 minute mark. Overall, our relay teams did a great job today.”

The Seminoles also dominated the women’s 4x200 relay going one, two on Friday afternoon. In first place was the team of Walker, Campbell, Jackson and Niako at 1:35.67, followed by Sharneka Brown, McColumn, Adams and Quinn in second with a time of 1:39.07.

On the men’s side, top finishers included a second place finish for Nate Davis in the 1500m run. The Tribe’s Danyne Brown and Rafeeq Curry finished second and fourth respectively in the 110m hurdles, while senior Kolby Jones compiled a fifth place finish in the 100m dash at 10.80. In the 3000m steeplechase gold championship, Dave Guerra was the Seminoles’ top performer running a season best time of 9:37.00. He was followed by fellow teammate Andrew Bautel, who finished in a time of 9:40.05, good for fourth place.

Other FSU top five finishers included women’s shot put: Cerenity Young, second (49’ 0.75”); women’s pole vault, tie for fourth (10’ 6.25”); women’s discus: Makiba Batten, second (167’ 1”) and Amanda Kinney, fourth (142’ 7”); women’s 100m hurdles: LaKendra McColumn, fourth (14.11); men’s 4x800 relay: Phillip Daniels, Robert Cooper, Bruce Chapman and Duane Griffiths, third (7:40.96); men’s 10K: Jim Van Veen, third (31:38.75).

“Day 3 of the relays continued with some exciting competition,” said coach Harlis Meaders. “The women’s team did an excellent job, especially Kim Jones deputing in the 100m hurdles, opening up with a better time then she did last season. In the field events, Makiba Batten continued to improve, while Cerenity Young did a great job for us in the women’s shot put. Tomorrow’s finale featuring the University of Michigan, Drake University, Iowa State and Kent State should make for some pretty exciting competition.”

The FSU Relays will conclude Saturday with a full schedule of events beginning at 10:00 am with the men’s and women’s long jump, women’s shot put, and men’s discus throw competitions. For complete results from Day 4 of competition, stay tuned to seminoles.com, the official athletic website of the Florida State Seminoles.

Gerber, Van Den Heuvel Lead Seminoles In Final Day Of FSU Relays
Florida State posts 12 NCAA Regional Qualifying marks in 11 different events.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – In yet another beautiful day out at the Mike Long Track, the FSU Relays came to a close on Saturday afternoon in a front of a packed crowd. The Seminoles went on to establish 12 NCAA regional qualifying marks in 11 different events. Florida State was led by Laura Gerber who blew away the field in the women's 400m posting an NCAA regional qualifying mark of 52.67. Gerber also ran a leg on the women's 4x400 relay that placed first in a time of 3:37.25. She was joined by fellow teammates Tamara Campbell, Marla Jackson and Shauna Quinn to post a season best time and in the process qualify for the NCAA regional meet.

Senior distance runner Maarten van den Heuvel came from behind, down the final straight a way, to win the 1500m run. He finished the race with an NCAA regional mark of 3:46.93.

Senior Kim Jones had another productive day finishing in the top two in three events on the final day of competition. She placed first in the 100m hurdles establishing a season best time of 13.33, qualifying for the NCAA Regionals. Jones also ran a leg on the 4x100m that took first place in a time of 46.08. The relay team of Shameka Brown, Kim Walker, Quinn and Jones went on to earn a spot in the NCAA Regionals, May 30-31 in Fairfax, Va. Jones then finished the day with a second place showing in the women's long jump competition with a mark of 18' 8.5".

In one of the closest races of the day, junior Sean Campbell and senior David Johnson battled to the finish line in the 800m run. Campbell, leading for pretty much then entire race, was able to hold off teammate Johnson to take the event in a time of 1:50.30, while Johnson finished second at 1:50.37. Both times were good for an NCAA regional qualifying mark. Freshman Robert Cooper came in third for the Seminoles with a time of 1:51.97.

In other track events, Danyne Brown was the top performer for the Garnet and Gold in the 110m hurdles, establishing an NCAA regional time of 14.26. Sophomore Kim Walker picked up her second individual victory of the tournament winning the 100m dash in a time of 12.10. She also joined Syndey Mondragon, Evelyne Niako and Brown to finish first in the women's sprint medley relay with a time of 4:02.43.

In the final relay event of the day, the Florida State team of Cedrick Robinson, Rafeeq Curry, Campbell and Johnson established a season best time of 3:08.14, winning the 4x400 relay and earning a spot in the NCAA Regional Championships.

Florida State claimed two first place finishes in the field events with Makiba Batten in the women's discus (174' 0") and Dorian Scott in the men's shot put (60' 0.25"). Freshman Garrett Johnson's second place finish in the men's discus was tops for the Seminoles on the day with a throw of 171' 1". All three marks for these individuals were good to qualify for the NCAA Regionals.

In the pole vault competition, Jeff Atkinson improved on his season best posting a mark of 16' 4.75" (5.00m) to finish in third place. Coming off her NCAA Indoor National Championship last weekend, sophomore Lacy Janson competed in her first outdoor competition of the season in the men's garnet division pole vault. She went on to finish 12th with a vault of 13' 8.25" (4.17m).

Other FSU top five finishers included men's discus: Dan Royal, third (164' 7"); women's 100m hurdles: LaKendra McCollum, third (14.28); women's 800m run: Syndey Mondragon, fifth (2:16.26); men's long jump: Kolby Jones, fifth (22' 11.25"); men's pole vault garnet: Brooks Weber, fourth (15' 1.75"); men's 400m hurdles: Danyne Brown, fifth (53.80); women's 100m dash: Sharneka Brown, third (12.29); men's triple jump: Willie Johnson, second (49' 3.75"); women's triple jump: Sharneka Brown, fourth (39' 11.25"); women's 1500m: Natalie Hughes, second (4:32.31).

The Seminoles will travel to the Florida Relays at the University of Florida in Gainesville, Fla., March 28-29 for their next meet of the season.
