

Girl Cagers Win Tourney

The Florida State girls basketball team won a round robin tournament here Saturday, beating Flagler College 76-38 and the University of Florida 48-45.

Marlene Graham scored 27 points, Liz White 11 and Yvette McKinney 10 in the win over Flagler, while Graham had 17 against Florida.

In other games, South Florida lost to Florida 57-52 and Flagler beat South Florida 58-53.

FSU, now 6-5, will play in the girls state tournament in Miami Feb. 26-28.

From the Florida Flambeau
February 18, 1974, page 6

Female cagers win weekend round robin

Florida State's women's basketball squad won all three of its games this weekend in the FSU Round Robin Tournament and thus earned a trip to Miami for the state championships Feb. 26-28.

Marlene Graham was the Seminoles' top scorer with 54 points in the weekend's action.

Friday night the women beat the University of South Florida, 62-41 behind Yvette McKinney's 19 points. Graham had 18.

Saturday the ladies came back to top Flagler College, 76-38 and the University of Florida, 48-45. Saturday's victories avenged earlier defeats of both schools.