

FSU Ladies Win Title

Special to the Democrat

MIAMI — JoAnn Shark sank a free throw with 1:30 remaining here yesterday, enabling Florida State's girls basketball team to slip past Florida 32-31 for the state championship.

Marlene Graham scored 11 points and Yvette McKinney 10 as Florida State won a berth in the southeastern regionals next weekend in Winter Park.

Emma Colquitt led the lady Seminoles in rebounding with 12.

Florida State led the entire game, but the biggest margin it could build was only a 14-6 edge at the end of the first quarter.

Susan Chambers' 14 points was tops for Florida.

Women cagers win state title

Florida State's women's basketball team captured the state basketball championship yesterday with a 32-31 win over the University of Florida.

Netters vie Furman Sunday

BY RICHARD BALLEAU

Men's varsity tennis swings into action Sunday as the Seminoles of Florida State host Furman University on the Tully Gym courts.

Sunday will begin a busy week for tennis coach Randy Johnson's squad. Beginning with the match against Furman, the team then hosts Virginia, on Tues., Presbyterian College, Wed., and winds up with Duke

The Seminole cagers went through the double elimination tourney in Miami undefeated as Marlene Graham and Yvette McKinney were the shooting stars and Emma Colquit did a big job off the boards.

The women beat Barry College in the first round and then defeated Flagler College and the University of Florida on Wednesday by 54-35 and 52-36 scores respectively.

The final game was tied at 31 apiece when Joanne Shuck hit a free throw to untie the score and the Tribe held on from there. Graham hit for 11 points in the championship clash and McKinney added 10. Colquit pulled down 12 rebounds.

FSU will now advance to the Southeastern regional next week at Winter Park.
