Lady Seminoles whip Gators

Florida State's women's basketball team took over first place in the state with a big upset over Florida 65-59 Wednesday night in Tully Gym.

The lady Gators entered the contest with an 8-0 record in state competition.

Hampered by 15 first half turnovers, the Lady Seminoles fell behind early, and stayed at a six-point disadvantage until they managed to tie the score at 26-26 with 2:41 left in the first half. FSU held the lady Gators scoreless for nearly seven minutes.

Ahead 32-26 at the half, Florida State stayed in command the remainder of the game, with Florida unable to narrow the margin. The Lady Seminoles took their 10th victory against seven defeats.

Leading the way for Florida State was freshman Shirley Silsby with 20 points, followed by Chris Brokas with 18 points. Senior Peggy Harstvedt led the attack on the boards with 15 rebounds.
