FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NABS SEASON'S SECOND VICTORY

CORAL GABLES, Fla. -- It went down to the last second, but the Florida State Lady Seminole basketball team improved its record to 2-1 as the squad squeaked out a 56-55 victory over the University of South Florida in the consolation game of the 1995 Dial Soap/Florida Four Challenge played at Knight Sports Complex on the campus of the University of Miami. With the loss, USF falls to 1-3 on the season.

Trailing 26-28 at the halftime break, FSU came out of the locker room to take what appeared to be control of the game. The Lady Seminoles outscored the Bulldogs 18-6 in the first six minutes of the second half to take a 10-point advantage at 44-34. But Florida State failed to score over the next 5:15 as South Florida went on a 10-0 run to tie the contest. The remaining eight minutes of the contest saw four lead changes and three ties. Sophomore forward Latrice McLin sank two of her 11 points from the free throw line at the 2:32 to give FSU a 54-52 lead and Carla Williams' two free throws gave the Tribe a four-point advantage with 1:52 left. But USF scored a free throw at the :45 mark and hit a jumper with 10.4 seconds left to bring the Bulldogs within one point. FSU's Jen Robinson was fouled immediately and went to the line for a one and the bonus. Robinson missed the shot and USF rebounded and took a timeout at halfcourt with 3.9 seconds to play. The Bulldogs failed to score in their last possession as USF guard Haylee Ahu dribbled the ball off of her foot.

"I think we tried everything in the world to give this game away today," FSU coach Marynell Meadors said. "USF is the type of team that you can get ahead of but they're going to come back and get you. But this was a positive team win for us. No one player stood out more than anyone else. It was just a great team win."

Williams and Wendy Hampton led all FSU players with 12 points apiece while McLin also tallied double figures with 11. FSU shot 42 percent from the field and outrebounded USF 43-31. USF also had three players in double figures.

"South Florida is a much improved team than last year," Meadors said. "You can't put them away. They will do well this season."

Florida State will head to Durham, N.C., for a 7 p.m. contest on Wed., Dec. 6 with the Blue Devils of Duke in the squad's first ACC game of the season.

"No question about it, this win gives us a little more confidence going into Duke," Meadors said. "Today, we ran our offenses much better and played our game. I'm very proud of the team for bouncing back from a tough loss against Florida. We grew up a lot from last night to today."
