FSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL FALLS TO MARYLAND

Tallahassee, FL - The Florida State women's basketball team suffered its fourth straight loss as the Lady Seminoles fell 72-49 to the Maryland Terrapins at the Leon County Civic Center this afternoon. FSU's record is now 5-9 and 0-5 in the Atlantic Coast Conference while the Terrapins improve their record to 7-6 and 2-2 in the league.

The first half was played close as there were four lead changes and seven ties. Florida State built its largest lead of the afternoon at five points at 23-18 with 5:40 to go, but Maryland went on a 13-2 run in the remainder of the half to take a 31-25 advantage at the half.

Maryland took over in the second half as the squad shot 55 percent from the field. FSU came within seven points at 45-38 with 10:40 to go, but could get no closer as the Terrapins out scored the Tribe 27-11 in the remaining 10 minutes of the game. Florida State suffered 28 turnovers and Maryland recorded 14 steals in the game.

"We had far too many turnovers and not a lot of communication on the court today," FSU head coach Marynell Meadors said. "We lacked the enthusiasm and spark that we've had over the two or three games."

Carla Williams once again led Florida State, but was well below her average of 16.9 points, as she finished with a team-high 12 points. Freshman Kristy White also tallied double figures with 10 points and a career-high 13 rebounds for her second "double-double" of the season. Four players scored in double figures for Maryland with Sonia Chase leading all scorers with 17 points. Lillian Purvis had 12 while Stephanie Cross and Kalisa Davis each added 10 points.

Florida State will have to regroup quickly as the Lady Seminoles head to Charlottesville, Va., for a 7 p.m. contest with No. 8 Virginia on Tuesday, Jan. 16.

"We have no excuses," Meadors said. "We just played poorly. We have to have some of our sophomores step up and contribute."
