Florida State falls at Ole Miss

OXFORD, Miss. -- The Florida State Lady Seminoles fell to an even 5-5 with a 75-52 loss at Mississippi this evening. With the win, Ole Miss improves to 8-2 on the season.

In the first half, the Lady Seminoles suffered through a scoring drought of nearly four minutes during which time the Lady Rebels ran off seven unanswered points and took a 16-5 lead. Lysa Moorefield scored six of her 13 points to put FSU within seven points at 18-11, but the Tribe could get no closer the rest of the half and went into the lockerroom trailing 33-25 after being down by 11 points at one time.

The second half was all Ole Miss. The Tribe fell behind by 15 points early, but Jen Robinson hit two straight baskets to bring the squad within 11 points. But Robinson's comeback attempt was short-lived as the Lady Rebels scored the game's next seven points and built a commanding lead of 18 points. FSU would get no closer than 15 the rest of the way as UM's Christie Sides hit four of her five three-pointers in the game's final 11 minutes.

"Mississippi played their brains out," FSU coach Chris Gobrecht said. "They had to play extremely well to beat us and they did. Every time out though, our kids learn a little more. We have our work cut out for us, but we're getting better."

Wendy Hampton's 15 points led all FSU players while Sides led the Lady Rebels with a game-high 20 points. FSU's Latrice McLin had a game-high nine rebounds.

Florida State will play next at Duke on Jan. 3.
