No. 16 Duke dismisses Florida State

DURHAM, N.C. -- The Florida State women's basketball team fell to 0-2 in the Atlantic Coast Conference and 5-6 overall tonight with a 87-46 loss at No. 16 Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Blue Devils improve to 10-2 overall and 2-0 in the league.

Duke's Ty Hall scored 16 of her 18 points in the first half, just three shy of the Florida State team as the Blue Devils took a 29-point lead at the half, 48-19. Four of Duke's first six points were off of free throws as the Blue Devils jumped out to a 10-2 lead and never looked back. Florida State failed to score for over five minutes, allowing Duke to build a 32-point advantage. FSU's Latavia Coleman scored 13 of the Tribe's 19 first half points and finished the night with 15.

While the Blue Devils were able to shut down Coleman in the second half, FSU's Jen Robinson rallied for 12 points, including FSU's final 10 points and led all Lady Seminoles with 18. Duke shot 57 percent for the game, but the Lady Seminoles outshot the Blue Devils in the second half 55 to 50 percent.

Junior Wendy Hampton was held to single figures for the first time this season with just three points on the night. As a team, the Seminoles continue to struggle from the free throw line, hitting just two of 12 attempts from the charity stripe.

"First of all, Duke played very well and we played very poorly," FSU head coach Chris Gobrecht said. "When a great team plays great and a not so great team plays poorly, that's what happens, you lose by 40 points. We executed better in the second half, but tonight was just another lesson on the road and they'll be lots of them, but Florida State will get there."

FSU will face ACC-foe Wake Forest (9-3, 1-1) on Sunday in a noon contest on ACC-TV.
